GAY CULVERHOUSE
President

Gay Culverhouse is carrying on a family tradition in her role as President of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. An academic achiever in the field of education, she has quickly made her mark in business as well.

Culverhouse formally joined the Buccaneers in 1986, became Vice President/Treasurer in 1990 and advanced to President two years ago. She oversees the front-office operations of the corporate sales, public relations and ticket departments.

After graduating with honors with a bachelor's degree in special education from the University of Florida in 1969, she earned a master's degree in mental retardation (1970) and a doctoral degree in special education (1982) from Columbia University. She was formerly a professor in the psychiatry department of the University of South Florida's College of Medicine and is a member of the Phi Lambda Theta scholastic honor society.

She is also highly active in a wide range of civic, community and educational affairs, most notably as the 1993 chairwoman of the Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce.

She is President of the Board of Directors of Tampa Crossroads, a program which helps those who have been incarcerated adjust to a return to society. In addition, she is a member of 24 Boards of Directors (including those of Bethune-Cookman College, the Hillsborough County Family Services Association, the Hillsborough County United Way and St. Petersburg's All Children's Hospital) throughout the Tampa Bay area and Florida. She is also a member of the Columbia University Board of Overseers.

During her tenure with the Buccaneers, she has initiated dropout prevention programs and a variety of anti-drug programs. She founded the Buccaneer Grant program, which helps chan nel needed funds to a wide variety of youth-serving agencies.

Her husband, Tampa attorney William Reece Smith, Jr., is the Past President of the American Bar Association, Past Chairman of the Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce and Past Chairman of the Tampa Committee of 100. She has two children, son, Chris (20) and daughter, Leigh (19).

RICHARD McKAY
Vice President - Football Administration

Richard McKay became the Buccaneers' Vice President-Football Administration in 1992, having served as the team's legal counsel for the past six years while affiliated with the Tampa law firm of Hill, Ward & Henderson.

In his role with the team, he continues to represent the Buccaneers on legal matters, as well as handling all football administration duties - including the negotiation of player contracts, the administration of the football and scouting budgets and representation of the Buccaneers on league matters.

McKay was born on March 16, 1959, in Eugene, Oregon. He is a graduate of Jesuit High School in Tampa where he was the starting quarterback. He went on to graduate in 1981 with honors from Princeton where he earned three varsity golf letters. He graduated with honors from Stetson College of Law in 1984 and clerked for two years for Tampa United States District Judge Wm. Terrell Hodges. In 1986, he joined Hill, Ward & Henderson, handling a wide variety of legal matters including those of the Buccaneers. He taught a sports/entertainment law course for three years at Stetson College of Law.

He and wife, Terrin, a Tampa native and a vice president with NationsBank, have two sons, Hunter (4) and John (1).

His father, John, the retired first coach of the Buccaneers, won four championships as head coach at Southern California to earn selection to the College Football Hall of Fame, while also guiding the Bucs to their only two division championships.

KREWE OF HONOR

The Buccaneers inaugurated the Krewe of Honor in 1991 – a grouping of outstanding contributors to the team.

The founding members of the Krewe are six-time Pro Bowl defensive end Lee Roy Selmon, running back Ricky Bell and founding head coach John McKay.

They were inducted on December 8, 1991 and a mural depicting them is on display under the east stands of Tampa Stadium.

In 1992, quarterback Doug Williams was inducted.The Bucs will induct founding owner Hugh Culverhouse into the Krewe on September 5, 1993.

SAM WYCHE
Head Coach

Innovation, excitement, motivation, a commitment to winning and a commitment to his community - these are the things Sam Wyche has come to stand for in his 21 years in the National Football League as a player, assistant and head coach. He enters his second season as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' head coach ready to apply his talents towards the effort to produce a successful season.

"Professional football is the greatest weekly spectacle in sport," says Wyche. "It is the essence of unpredictable competition. It can unify and galvanize a community like nothing else. I've experienced that feeling before, that special feeling when the home team turns it around, in San Francisco and Cincinnati. There is nothing I want more than to experience it here in Tampa Bay."

Wyche is one of only nine active NFL head coaches who have directed his team to a Super Bowl and, along with Dan Reeves and Tom Flores, one of only three active head coaches to participate in pro football's championship game as a player, assistant coach and head coach.

He has already made his mark on the Tampa Bay area with his articulate and enthusiastic approach and a series of roster and strategic moves which have laid the groundwork for success.

Wyche was born in Atlanta, Georgia, on January 5, 1945, where he attended North Fulton High School. He was a walk-on quarterback at Furman University where he earned a bachelor of arts degree in business administration.

He played with the Wheeling Ironmen of the Continental Football League in 1966 before going to the University of South Carolina as a graduate assistant for two seasons. In 1968, he earned a master's in business administration management.

With the help of Lou Holtz, also a South Carolina assistant, Wyche had a tryout in 1968 with Paul Brown's Cincinnati Bengals, an AFL expansion team. He made the squad and was a starter much of the time and was a member of Cincinnati's first AFC Central champions in 1970. During three seasons with the Bengals, he completed 115 of 220 passes (52.3%) for 1,743 yards and threw 12 TDs.

In 1971, Wyche was traded to the Washington Redskins for whom he participated in Super Bowl VII, before being traded to Detroit in 1974. In 1976 he played with the St. Louis Cardinals and Buffalo Bills.

After retiring as a player, Wyche and a partner opened Sam Wyche Sports World in Greenville, South Carolina, which became a chain of 11 stores.

Successful in business, Wyche still had a desire to be involved with football which was kindled with a visit to the San Francisco 49ers' training camp in 1979. Wyche joined his former quarterback coach with the Bengals, Bill Walsh, in San Francisco as quarterbacks and passing game coach for the next four seasons, including Super Bowl XVI when San Francisco defeated the Bengals, 26-21, at the conclusion of the 1981 season.

He was widely credited with developing quarterback Joe Montana, as the 49ers finished in the top half of the league in offense in each season.

Wyche became head coach at Indiana in 1983. His rebuilding program was interrupted the next year when Paul Brown brought him to the Bengals as head coach. In eight seasons, he became Cincinnati's winningest coach with two division champions.

He was voted the NFL and AFC Coach of the Year after his team posted a league-best 12-4 regular season record in 1988. The Bengals added playoff wins over Seattle and Buffalo before losing one of the most closely contested Super Bowls ever (XXIII), 20-16, to the 49ers in Miami. Among those choosing him as Coach of the Year were the Pro Football Writers, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, Football News and Washington Touchdown Club.

His Bengals then won a second AFC Central crown in 1990.

He has established himself as one of the top offensive thinkers in football with innovations such as the no-huddle offense. The results have been a combination of rushing and passing which produces yardage and touchdowns. The nine teams he has been the head coach of have averaged over 500 yards per season more than the league average. In the last nine years only 14 times has a team gained over 6,000 yards in a season - three times they have been coached by Wyche.

In addition to his commitment to football, Wyche is known for his community service. He gives his time to many charitable groups and is especially committed to helping the homeless. He was widely regarded as the leading spokesperson and advocate for the plight of the homeless in Cincinnati and has been similarly active since coming to Tampa Bay.

When away from football, Wyche is a pilot (owning a Cessna) and a skilled magician. He also enjoys playing golf, tennis and the guitar. A skilled public speaker who is articulate, enthusiastic and always delivers a message, Wyche donates a substantial portion of any speaking fees to charity. He and his wife, Jane, have two children, Zak, 22, and Kerry, 20.

POSITION COACHES

MAXIE BAUGHAN
Linebackers

PRO

A member of the Los Angeles Rams' and Philadelphia Eagles' All-Time Teams, Buccaneer linebackers are fortunate to study under one of the league's greatest linebackers, Maxie Baughan.

In his 10-year NFL coaching career, Baughan has twice coached with Floyd Peters in two different roles. Baughan spent the 1990 season as the linebackers coach for Minnesota under Defensive Coordinator Peters, and for two seasons (1980-1981) he served as the Detroit Lions' Defensive Coordinator while Peters was the defensive line coach.

During his stint as Lions' defensive coordinator, Baughan's defense ranked first in the NFC against the rush and also ranked number one in sacks in 1982.

Baughan first joined the NFL coaching ranks in 1974 as a player/coach for George Allen and the Washington Redskins. After leaving the Redskins, he spent the next five seasons (1975-1979) as the defensive coordinator for the Baltimore Colts. The Colts were the AFC East Champions three of those five seasons.

Maxie Baughan was an outstanding outside linebacker in his 13-year NFL career. His nine Pro Bowl selections tied former Lion Joe Schmidt for most by a linebacker until Lawrence Taylor broke the mark in 1990. Drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles in the second round of the 1960 Draft, Baughan culminated a great rookie year by helping the Eagles win the NFL Championship and finished as the runner-up for 1960 Rookie of the Year.

He played six years in Philadelphia (1960-1965) and then spent five seasons in Los Angeles (1966-1970), during which time the Rams were a three-time playoff participant. Baughan finished his playing career in 1971 with Washington.

COLLEGE

Baughan began his coaching career in 1972 as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at his alma mater, Georgia Tech (1972-1973) and helped lead the Yellow Jackets to a 1972 appearance in the Liberty Bowl. He also served six years in the Ivy League as the head coach at Cornell University (1983-1988).

PERSONAL

Maxie Callaway Baughan, Jr. was born August 3, 1938, in Bessemer, Alabama. He and wife, Diane, have three sons, Max III (30), Mark (28) and Matt (23). He graduated from Georgia Tech with a degree in industrial management. He was a four-year letterman and was selected as an All-America center in his 1959 senior season.

Baughan is a member of the Georgia Tech All-Time Team and Hall of Fame and was recently inducted into the Gator Bowl Hall of Fame. He enjoys golf and hunting in his leisure time.

JEFF FITZGERALD
Defensive/Offensive /Administrative Assistant

PRO

Fitzgerald is responsible for breaking down opponents' video for the coaches, working with Head Coach Sam Wyche and assisting Steve Shafer with the defensive backs. He spent three seasons as a defensive assistant with the Buccaneers and holds the distinction of being the only coach to survive two Buccaneer head coaching changes. Fitzgerald was hired by Ray Perkins prior to the 1990 season, was retained by Richard Williamson when he took over in 1991 and was rehired by Sam Wyche.

COLLEGE

Jeff Fitzgerald began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at Cincinnati (1985-1986) where he assisted with the defensive linemen. He then went to Alabama for four seasons (1986-1989); two as a graduate assistant and two as a volunteer assistant, while obtaining his master's degree. Among his duties were assisting with linebackers and special teams, coordinating the walk-on program and being a full-time faculty instructor. He began coaching in 1981 at his alma mater, Burroughs High School in Burbank, California, as an assistant while enrolled at Cal State Northridge. He spent two seasons there before moving to Burbank High School in the same capacity for two years (1983-1985).

PERSONAL

Fitzgerald was born on April 18, 1960, in Burbank, California. He attended Oregon State and was a reserve linebacker who gave his all until a serious knee injury ended his career. He transferred to Cal State Northridge after the injury and obtained his degree in physical education. Fitzgerald also earned his master's degree in physical education from Alabama. He served as a volunteer in the weightlifting events in the 1984 Summer Olympic games in Los Angeles. In his spare time, he enjoys traveling and mountain bike riding. During the offseason, Fitzgerald traveled to Hong Kong and Korea.

1990-	Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Defensive Assistant
1988-1990	University of Alabama, Volunteer Linebacker Coach
1986-1988	University of Alabama, Graduate Assistant
1985-1986	University of Cincinnati, Graduate Assistant

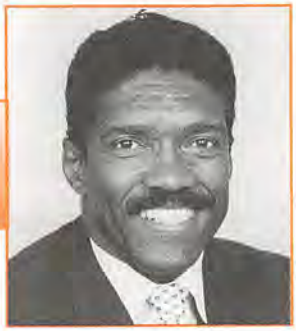
HAROLD JACKSON
Wide Receivers



PRO

For the second season, Buc wide receivers have the opportunity to learn from one of the best in NFL history: Harold Jackson.

Jackson started his coaching career with New England Patriots in 1985 as an assistant receivers coach and began a six-year stint as the receivers coach in 1986. He spent 1991 as the Assistant Head Coach/Off. Coordinator for Eddie Khayat, now Bucs' defensive line coach, with the New Orleans Night of the Arena Football League.

During his 17-year career, Jackson caught 579 passes for 10,372 yards with 76 touchdowns. He ranks 13th in NFL history in catches and his career yardage total is seventh best. He is tied with Hall of Famer Fred Biletnikoff for 10th in career receiving touchdowns. Jackson participated in five Pro Bowls (1969,1972,1973,1975 and 1977) and had 29 100 yards-plus receiving days in his career (sixth best in NFL history).

Drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in the 11th round of the 1968 Draft, he spent his rookie year in Los Angeles before playing five seasons with Philadelphia (1969-1972). Perhaps his best season came in 1969 as he teamed with QB Norm Snead for 65 receptions for 1,116 yards and nine TDs and earned his first selection to the Pro Bowl. He returned to the Rams in 1973 as part of the Roman Gabriel trade and led the league in average yards per catch (with a 21.9 average) and receiving touchdowns (13). Jackson next played with New England (1978-1981) where he was coached by Raymond Berry. In just four years, he became the Patriots' 12th top receiver in passes caught and fourth in yards receiving. He finished his career with Seattle in 1983.

PERSONAL

Harold Jackson was born on January 6, 1946, in Hattiesburg, Mississippi. He was a four-year letterman at Jackson State. His wife's name is Carolyn and he has four children: son Terry (28), twin daughters, Yolando and Rolando (16) and son, Brandon (born 12/1/92). An avid runner, Jackson also enjoys playing the drums, fishing, tennis and golf. Jackson's resume also features small roles in the movies "North Dallas Forty" and "The Chosen."

EDDIE KHAYAT
Defensive Line

PRO

Known for his ability to teach and motivate his players, Eddie Khayat brings over 31 years of NFL experience (both playing and coaching) to the Buccaneers' defensive linemen.

During his 23 years of coaching on the professional level, he has worked with such players as Hall of Famer Doug Atkins (New Orleans), Claude Humphrey (Falcons), Mike Barnes and John Dutton (Colts) and Doug English (Lions). All were selected to the Pro Bowl under Khayat's guidance.

Khayat's five seasons as the defensive line coach of the New England Patriots (1985-1989) were highlighted by a berth in Super Bowl XX in 1986. He spent three seasons (1982-1984) with the Detroit Lions as the defensive line coach and helped coach the Lions to the 1983 NFC Central title.

He began his coaching career in 1967 with the New Orleans Saints for four seasons and moved to the Philadelphia Eagles as the defensive line coach in 1971. Three games into 1971, he became the head coach through the end of the 1972 season.

In 1973, Khayat became the defensive line coach at Detroit for two seasons before joining the Falcons for two years. In 1977, he joined the Baltimore Colts' staff as the defensive line coach under Ted Marchibroda. During his stint with Baltimore, the Colts won the AFC East title in 1977.

Khayat was the head coach in 1991 for the New Orleans Night of the Arena Football League where he worked with present Bucs' receivers coach Harold Jackson. He and Jackson became acquainted in 1971 while Jackson was a receiver and Khayat was head coach with the Eagles.

Khayat entered the NFL in 1957 as a free agent defensive lineman with the Washington Redskins. He played four seasons (1958-1961) with the Philadelphia Eagles. During the 1960 season, he was the starting defensive tackle on the Eagles team that defeated the Green Bay Packers for the World Championship. Khayat went back to Washington for two seasons (1962-1963) before making a return trip to Philadelphia (1964-1965). While an Eagle, he was a teammate of fellow Buc coaches Floyd Peters and Maxie Baughan. He ended his playing career with the Boston Patriots in the AFL in 1966.

PERSONAL

Eddie Khayat was born September 14, 1935, in Moss Point, Mississippi. Khayat graduated from Tulane University with a degree in sociology and a minor in English. He was a two-year letterman as an offensive and defensive end at Tulane after attending Millsaps College and Perkinston Junior College. He was selected to the All-Time Tulane Football Team in 1979 and to the Tulane Athletic Hall of Fame in 1981. He was named Mississippi Sportsman of the Year in 1971.

Eddie and wife, Deborah, have two sons, Ed. Jr. (24) and Bill (20). His younger brother, Robert, was a Pro Bowl placekicker for the Washington Redskins. He enjoys music, playing handball and spending time with his family.

THE BUCCANEER GRANT PROGRAM

The Buccaneer Grant Program enters its fifth season in 1993, having already distributed over $100,000 in funds to community groups in the Tampa Bay area. This season, the program fund is expected to double with contributions from area sponsors. Last year, $40,000 was distributed to non-profit local organizations.

The program was started by President Gay Culverhouse as a way to help reach the unfortunate in the six-county area. The recipients are selected by a special panel of community leaders who review the hundreds of applications each year. The panel looks for worthy organizations with specific needs over and above their regular operating costs.

Sherry Gruden, Community Relations Assistant for the Buccaneers, will accept 1993 applications until September 25th. The grants will be awarded during the halftime of the Bucs game against the Chicago Bears on December 12th.

WILLIE PEETE
Running Backs

PRO

In their first season under Coach Peete, Tampa Bay Buccaneer running backs ran for 277 more yards than the previous season and Reggie Cobb produced the first 1,000 yard season by a Buc in seven seasons. This year, Peete is looking for even more improvement from his older, more experienced group of runners.

A veteran of 34 years of coaching, Peete served as the Green Bay Packers' running backs coach for five seasons (1987-1991), and under his guidance Brent Fullwood was selected to the Pro Bowl in 1989. Another back tutored by Peete during these Packer years was Vince Workman who signed with the Buccaneers during the offseason. Before his stint with the Packers, he was the backfield coach for the Kansas City Chiefs under John Mackovic for four seasons. In his NFL career, Peete has worked under Head Coaches John Mackovic, Forrest Gregg and Lindy Infante.

COLLEGE

A veteran of over 14 collegiate seasons, Willie Peete began his coaching career in 1960 at Arizona as a graduate assistant while earning his degree in physical education. After two seasons at Arizona, Peete returned to his hometown of Mesa, Arizona, and spent the next seven years as an assistant football coach and junior varsity basketball coach. He returned to his alma mater in 1971 as an assistant coach for the next 12 seasons.

PERSONAL

Willie Peete was born on July 14, 1937, in Mesa, Arizona, and was an all-around athlete in football, basketball and baseball in high school there. Peete enjoyed a standout four-year career at Arizona as a fullback. He graduated with a degree in physical education from Arizona and received a master's degree in secondary education from Arizona State.

He and wife, Edna, have two sons who also excelled in football; Willie Skip (30), a member of the Michigan State University coaching staff and Rodney (27), quarterback for the Detroit Lions. Peete enjoys working in the yard as a way to relax.

FLOYD PETERS
Defensive Coordinator

PRO

A popular man among Buccaneer fans for bringing back memories of the tough, relentless Buc defenses from the glory days in 1979 and 1981, Floyd Peters begins his third season as defensive coordinator in 1993 determined to improve even more, thanks to the offseason additions of veteran NFL players.

Peters is no stranger to success in the NFL. This will be his 11th consecutive season as a coordinator and he has 18 years of experience as a defensive line coach. Sixteen of the last 17 defenses he has been associated with have ranked in the NFL's top 15.

Peters shaped the Minnesota Vikings defense for five seasons (1986-1990) and developed them into one of the most feared units in the league. His Viking defense was the number-one rated defense in the NFL in both 1988 and 1989. The 1989 Vikings also led the league in passing defense and sacks (71), while his 1988 squad topped the NFL in takeaways (53), interceptions (36) and fewest first downs allowed (243). During his tenure with the Vikings, he developed such Pro Bowl talents as Keith Millard (1989 NFL Defensive Player of the Year), Chris Doleman, Joey Browner and Carl Lee.

Before his stint with the Vikings, Peters was assistant head coach/defensive coordinator with the St. Louis Cardinals (1982-1985) where his 1983 unit led the NFL with 59 sacks. He also served as defensive line coach at Detroit for four seasons (1978-1981), where he worked with two-time Pro Bowl selection Al "Bubba" Baker. The 1978 Detroit defense set a team sack record with 55 and the 1981 Lions topped the NFC with 47 sacks.

In 1976, while serving as defensive line coach with San Francisco, his defensive line helped lead the NFL in sacks with 61. He spent the 1970 season with Vince Lombardi and the Washington Redskins as a player/coach and became a full-time NFL defensive line coach with the New York Giants in 1974.

Peters was an eighth-round draft choice of the Baltimore Colts out of San Francisco State in 1958. He spent the 1958 season with the Colts and then played for Cleveland for four years (1959-1962), one season with Detroit (1963) and six years with the Philadelphia Eagles (1964-1969). While at Philadelphia, he was selected to play in three Pro Bowls (1964,1966 and 1967) and was named Most Valuable Player of the 1966 game. Peters served as a player/coach for the Redskins in 1970 for a total of 12 years as a player.

PERSONAL

Floyd Peters was born in Council Bluffs, Iowa, on May 21, 1936. He moved to Crockett, California at a young age and graduated from Swett High School. He was a four-year letterman at San Francisco State where he played defensive tackle and guard.

He and wife, Nancy, have four sons; Craig (35), Kelly (32), Dean (29), and Allen (28). Peters enjoys golf and hunting in his spare time.

TURK SCHONERT
Quarterbacks

PRO

A ten-year NFL veteran, former Bengal quarterback Turk Schonert uses his experience in the league working with the Tampa Bay passers.

Schonert was a quarterback for the Cincinnati Bengals for nine seasons (1980-1985,1987-1989), four of those with Sam Wyche. He was recognized as a quality back-up behind Ken Anderson and Boomer Esiason during his tenure with the Bengals and compiled a 4-2 record in his six starts. In his career, he completed 311 of 493 passes for 3,788 yards with 11 touchdowns. He participated in Super Bowl XVI and XXIII with the Bengals.

Schonert enjoyed his best season in 1983 with 92 completions in 156 attempts for 1,159 yards and two TDs in nine games. He was traded to the Atlanta Falcons after the 1985 season and spent the 1986 season with Atlanta.

Originally selected by the Chicago Bears in the ninth round of the 1980 Draft but released in the final week of preseason, he was claimed by the Bengals but did not play in 1980. He made his NFL debut in the opening game of the 1981 season, replacing Ken Anderson with Cincinnati trailing Seattle 21-0, and rallied the Bengals to a 27-21 victory.

COLLEGE

As a three-year letterman (1977-79) at Stanford, Schonert was coached by Bill Walsh. He was the NCAA leader in passing efficiency in his senior campaign in 1979 with a school-record completion percentage of 67.0 percent and led the PAC 10 with 19 TD passes.

PERSONAL

Turk Schonert was born on January 15, 1957, in Torrence, California. A true athlete, he played shortstop and third base in the 1968 Little League World Series for Placentia, California against Japan. He and wife, Beth, have two children, son, Jake (2), and daughter, Camery (1). He enjoys golf and skiing in his spare time, and once owned thoroughbreds with Cris Collinsworth. His godfather is NBA Referee Darrell Garretson.

STEVE SHAFER
Defensive Backs

PRO

Steve Shafer returns for his third year of guiding the Buccaneer defensive backs. Shafer, with 10 years of NFL coaching experience and 10 years at the collegiate level, will be reunited this season with former Rams' pupil, Jerry Gray.

Shafer spent the previous eight seasons (1983-1990) as defensive backs coach with the Los Angeles Rams. During his stint, the Rams averaged over 21 interceptions per year. In 1986, the Rams picked off 28 passes, good for fourth in the league. The Rams' best season under Shafer came in 1985 with 29 passes intercepted (third in the NFC) with four of those interceptions returned for touchdowns. During Shafer's tenure with the Rams, he coached Pro Bowl players Jerry Gray, LeRoy Irvin, Nolan Cromwell and Gary Green.

COLLEGE

Steve Shafer began his coaching career at the College of San Mateo in 1968, where he took over as head coach in 1973. In his two years at the helm (1973-1974), San Mateo went 15-6-1. From there he moved to San Diego State for eight seasons (1975-1982) where he coached each of the defensive positions for the Aztecs.

Shafer attended Utah State and was a two-year letterman at quarterback. He was chosen by the San Francisco 49ers in the 11th round of the 1963 Draft. Instead of playing for the 49ers, he opted to join the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League. He spent the next five seasons with the Lions, while also serving as athletic director and head of the physical education department at Westminster High School in British Columbia.

PERSONAL

Steve Shafer was born on December 8, 1940, in Glendale, California. He and wife, Jane have two children, son Don (29) and daughter Shawn (26). He enjoys golf, fishing and bowling in his spare time.

GEORGE STEWART
Special Teams/Tight Ends

PRO

The Buccaneers' special teams and tight ends improved greatly in 1992 under first-year coach George Stewart. Punter Dan Stryzinski set a team record with his net punting average while kick returner Gary Anderson increased his return average. Rookie tight end Tyji Armstrong took the league by storm and was selected to several NFL all-rookie squads.

George Stewart spent three successful seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Under his leadership, the Steelers' special teams showed tremendous improvement with three returns for touchdowns and the selection of specialist Rod Woodson to the 1989 Pro Bowl.

COLLEGE

A veteran of six collegiate seasons as a coach, Stewart began his coaching career in 1983 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Arkansas, with old college coach, Lou Holtz. He followed Holtz to the University of Minnesota in 1984 as the offensive line coach. In 1986, Stewart again followed Holtz to Notre Dame and coached the tight ends and special teams, along with one season working with the defensive ends (1988). He worked with talents such as Rocket Ismail, Joel Williams and Tim Brown while with the Fighting Irish.

Stewart was an All-America guard under Lou Holtz at Arkansas from 1977-1980 and was named to the All-Southwest Conference team as a junior. After being named team captain in his senior year, he suffered a knee injury in the fourth game of the season which ended his college career. He was elected to the University of Arkansas' All-Decade Team.

PERSONAL

George Stewart was born on December 29, 1958, in Little Rock, Arkansas, and was a Prep All-America at Parkview High School. He signed as a free agent with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1981 but the college knee injury prevented him from playing. He ventured into private business for one year before joining the coaching profession.

He and wife, Cindy, are the parents of daughters, Tiffany (9) and Arianna (2) and a son, Christopher (7). Cindy's brother is NBA standout Sidney Moncrief. Stewart enjoys golf, reading and spending time with his family.

RICHARD WOOD
Defensive Assistant

PRO

As a player, Richard Wood told his teammates that one day he would return to Tampa as a coach and they would go to the Super Bowl. They all laughed at Wood then but no one is laughing now. Hired by Richard Williamson in 1991, Wood is one of four coaches retained by Wyche. His responsibilities include assisting Maxie Baughan with the linebackers and working on video breakdown.

In his playing days, he was known for his intense attitude on the field and he has carried that fervor into coaching. One of his strengths as a coach is his ability to relate to the player on a common ground.

Wood played linebacker for the Buccaneers for nine seasons (1976-1984) and is the team's all-time tackle leader with 847. He played in a team-record 132 games. Wood started 88 consecutive games between 1976 and 1981 and never missed a game due to injury in his career. He had five seasons of over 100 tackles and led the team in tackles four times, including the 1979 squad which led the NFL in defense. He also intercepted nine passes during his career, caused 12 fumbles and scored three touchdowns.

He was a third-round draft choice of the New York Jets in 1975 and played one season there before a 1976 trade to Tampa Bay where he was reunited with his college coach, John McKay. He enjoyed a star-studded career at Southern California as the first three-time All-America in the school's history (1972-1974) while playing on two national championship teams.

PERSONAL

Richard Wood was born on May 31,1953, in Elizabeth, New Jersey where he graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School. He and wife, Karen, a marketing officer at Chase Bank, have two children, Rachelle (11) and Marlon (9). His interests include long distance bicycle riding, drag racing and tae kwon do (in which he holds a black belt). Richard is better known by the nickname "Batman" which he acquired in college when he stood up in the first football meeting and jokingly stated that he was Batman from Gotham City.

1991-	Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Defensive Assistant
1976-84	Tampa Bay Buccaneers, player
1975	New York Jets, player
1972-74	University of Southern California, player

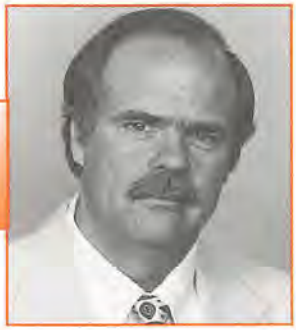
BOB WYLIE
Offensive Line



PRO

After his innovative techniques boosted the efficiency of the offensive line in his first year with the Bucs, Bob Wylie plans to continue building on the progress achieved last season. Last year, Wylie initiated an offensive line-platooning system which substitutes a group of linemen for another allowing brief rests during the game. The system worked very well as the Bucs dominated the first two games at the line of scrimmage with 663 yards of total offense until the offensive line was hit by a rash of injuries.

In order to help tackles hear the signal count in loud dome arenas, Wylie came up with the idea of having the tackle put his hand on the guard's outstretched hand. When the guard jerks his hand away, the tackle knows the ball has been snapped.

Wylie spent two years as a tight ends coach with the New York Jets. As a volunteer at Bengals' training camps for nine summers (1981-1989), Wylie learned under Jim McNally, considered to be one of the NFL's best line coaches.

COLLEGE

Wylie started his coaching career at Brown (1981-1982) as an offensive line coach before moving to Holy Cross for two seasons (1983-1984). He coached at Ohio University for three seasons (1985-1987) and was the offensive coordinator in his final year. He moved to Colorado State in 1988 and spent two seasons coaching the offensive line under Earle Bruce.

PERSONAL

Bob Wylie was born on February 16, 1951, in Providence, Rhode Island. He played three seasons at Colorado before transferring to Roger Williams College where he earned his bachelor's degree in American Studies in 1973. In 1975, he earned his master's degree in economics from Rhode Island. His wife's name is Kay and he has a daughter, Jennifer (15). In his spare time, he plays golf as often as possible and has his pilot's license and enjoys flying.

1992-	Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Offensive Line Coach
1990-91	New York Jets, Tight Ends Coach

BRAD ROLL
Strength and Conditioning Coach

PRO

Brad Roll joins the Buccaneers this season as the new Strength and Conditioning Coach after spending the last four seasons with the Miami Hurricanes. Although new to the professional ranks, several current Buccaneer players and NFL stars (all former Hurricanes) such as Craig Erickson, Mike Sullivan, Horace Copeland and Lamar Thomas can attest to his abilities to get 100% effort from his players. Roll also worked with big men Russell Maryland and Cortez Kennedy in strength training at Miami.

In 1985 & 1986, Roll was selected to travel to Moscow for the summer to train with the Russian Olympic weightlifters. These visits had a lasting impact on Roll as he came back with new techniques and drills.

COLLEGE

He began his coaching career as an assistant football coach at Stephen F. Austin University in 1980 and left his native state of Texas to become the first full-time Head Strength and Conditioning Coach at the University of Southwestern Louisiana in 1981. Roll became the University of Kansas' Head Strength and Conditioning Coach for the 1987 and 1988 seasons, working with the 1987 Kansas National Championship Basketball Squad. Roll joined the University of Miami as the Strength and Conditioning Coach in 1989 and was an instrumental force behind their two National Championship football squads in 1989 and 1991.

PERSONAL

Bradley Paul Roll was born on July 4, 1958, in Houston, Texas and graduated from Spring Branch High School in Houston. After spending two years at Blinn Junior College in Brenham, Texas, Roll transferred to Stephen F. Austin University where he obtained his bachelor's degree in education. He continued his education and earned a master's degree in education. Roll was a two-year letterman at Blinn Junior College and at Stephen F. Austin at the center position. He is single and enjoys riding his Harley Davidson and sport fishing in his spare time.

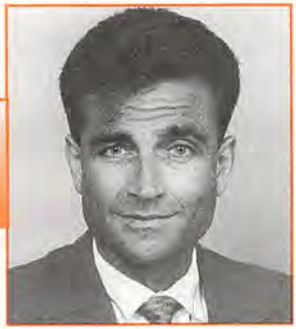
PLAYER PERSONNEL

JERRY ANGELO
Director of Player Personnel



With the new free agency agreement, Angelo's job description grows day-by-day. In addition to heading up the five-man college scouting team, he is also responsible for the two-man pro personnel staff analyzing NFL prospects. He enters his seventh season with Tampa Bay.

He began his coaching career at Colorado State as a defensive line coach in 1972 and moved to the Bay Area and became the University of Tampa's defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator in 1973. When Tampa dropped its football program, he became the defensive line coach for Syracuse University for the next five years.

Angelo ventured into scouting in 1980 with the Dallas Cowboys and then served a brief stint with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League in 1982 before moving to the New York Giants for the next five seasons.

Jerry Angelo was born February 9, 1949, in Youngstown, Ohio. He graduated from Chaney High School in Youngstown where he played football under his father, Red. Angelo obtained his bachelor's degree in social sciences from Miami of Ohio where he also lettered three years at defensive tackle under Bo Schembechler and Bill Mallory. He later continued his education at Miami and earned a master's in education. He and wife, Bernie, have two daughters, Lisa (22) and Sutton (6).

TIM RUSKELL
Director of College Scouting

Tim Ruskell begins his seventh year in the Buccaneer scouting department and his second as the department director. He coordinates the Bucs' four-man college scouting staff as they evaluate personnel across the country.

Prior to joining the Bucs as a scout in 1987, Ruskell spent two seasons as the Director of Scouting for the Tampa Bay Bandits where he worked with Bucs' running back Gary Anderson and current University of Florida Head Coach Steve Spurrier.

Ruskell was initiated into the NFL and the Buccaneers in the inaugural season of 1976, where he assisted during training camp and did research work for the Bucs' scouting department while attending the University of South Florida.

After graduating from USF with a degree in broadcasting in 1978, Ruskell worked with various Bay area radio stations for five years before starting a career in scouting. In 1983, Ruskell joined the CFL Sasketchewan Rough Riders for two seasons as a personnel scout where he worked with General Manager John Herrera who was one of the original 1976 Buccaneer scouts.

Ruskell was born October 20, 1956, in Yokahama, Japan, where his father was stationed in the Army. He graduated from King High School and graduated from the University of South Florida in 1978 with a degree in broadcasting. He is single and enjoys golf, jogging and music.

MIKE ACKERLEY — College Scout

Ackerley joined the Buccaneer scouting department in January of 1993 replacing departed scout James Harris as the team's west coast representative. Before coming to Tampa, Ackerley spent four seasons at Arizona State, working with the defensive linemen. He began his coaching career in 1970 with Colorado State and has subsequently worked at Kansas, Iowa State and the University of Southern California. Professionally, Ackerley served as the linebacker coach for the USFL Los Angeles Express in 1984 and 1985. Ackerley was born March 21, 1947, in St. Paul, Minnesota, and graduated from Foothill High School in Bakersfield, California. He graduated from Colorado State. Ackerley and wife, Jeanne were married in May.

BRIAN GARDNER College Scout

Gardner joined the Bucs in January with southwestern scouting duties. He played three seasons in the Arena Football League with New England, Pittsburgh and New York and also played with the CFL's Sasketchewan Rough Riders in 1989. He was drafted by Barcelona of the WLAF but a knee injury in camp ended his playing career. His coaching career began in 1991 as the Defensive Coordinator with the Arena League's New Orleans Night (with Harold Jackson and Eddie Khayat). Gardner was born January 13, 1964, in New Orleans, Louisiana, and was a three-year starter at wide receiver at Prairie View A & M where he graduated with a communications degree. He married the former Vanessa James on June 12th.

RUSTON WEBSTER College Scout

Webster begins his sixth season in the Bucs' scouting department and was relocated to Memphis, Tennessee during the offseason. He is responsible for scouting the Midwest Region. He came to Tampa Bay in 1988 and has worked in both college and pro personnel. Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Webster coached tight ends and safeties at Tulsa in 1987 after serving as a graduate assistant at Alabama in 1986 and at SW Louisiana in 1985. He received a bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation at Mississippi after attending Madison (MS) Academy as a prep. He was born September 30, 1962, in Houston, Texas, and his wife's name is Gayle.

MIKE YOWARSKY College Scout

Yowarsky joined the Bucs' staff in 1991 and covers much of the East and Midwest from his Chattanooga, Tennessee home. He spent 1990 as a graduate assistant for Steve Spurrier at Florida after serving in the same capacity at Kansas (1984-88). The recipient of a bachelor's degree in secondary education from Tennessee, he also earned a master's in athletic administration and sports psychology at Kansas. Yowarsky's father, Walt Yowarsky, is a 25-year veteran in the NFL as a scout, player and assistant coach and currently scouts with Dallas. He was born on October 6, 1960, in Cleveland, Ohio, and his wife's name is Viva.

On the field, Buccaneer safety Tony Covington strives to be poetry in motion, but off the field, he spends his free time putting poems onto paper.

"I'm a private person and poetry is my release to let out all of my feelings and frustrations. I've written over 75 poems since college and hope one day to have a book of my work published."

God, Make me a tool,
Oh Lord I pray;
Let me give every ounce of me
to show thanks for this day.

Make me like thunder
so that I may move the crowd;
Make me like lightning
so that my actions speak loud.

Make me a clock
so I tick with precision;
Make me a wiseman
that will make only the right decisions.

On that field today
Make me like fire;
Leading by example
With shear emotion and desire.

Make me like a gladiator
that fearsome warrior from the past;
And as I line up each play to do my job
I will play each play as if it is my last

College: San Jose State NFL Year: 17
Bucs Acq: Plan B Free Agent, 1992

PRO

A gritty and extremely determined performer, DeBerg has compiled some of the most impressive passing statistics in NFL history...Beginning his 17th season, he has elevated his rankings to sixth on both the NFL's all-time pass attempts (4,738) and completions (2,708) charts and 11th on the all-time passing yardage chart (32,165)...Stands just 338 pass attempts shy of Jim Hart (5,076), who occupies the fifth spot on the league's career list...Needs only 122 completions to match the fifth-place total of Johnny Unitas (2,830)...Requires 60 passing yards to surpass Sonny Jurgensen (32,224) and join the top 10 QBs in NFL history...Has played in 33 different NFL venues in his career, with Atlanta's Georgia Dome and Philadelphia's Veteran Stadium the only current sites he has not see action in...Returned to Tampa Bay last season, where he had previously started 34 games from 1984 through 1987, after spending the four prior seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs...Still ranks as Bucs' all-time leader in passer rating with a 74.7 mark...At age 39, ranks as the NFL's senior player...Has played in four uniforms, beginning with San Francisco and Denver before moving on to the Buccaneers and Chiefs...Recognized as probably the most adept NFL QB at performing the play-action fake...Has compiled 19 career 300-yard passing games, including six in his first stint with the Bucs...50-84-1 as a starting QB...Since 1982 his teams are 44-54-1 (44.9%) with him at the helm and 17-48-1 (26.5%) in other games (excluding 1987 strike games)...Started 52 games from 1988 through 1991 with Kansas City, including 31 (21-10) in the Chiefs' two playoff seasons of 1990 and 1991...Quarterbacked Chiefs to their only playoff win since 1968 after 1991 season...Despite rigors of 16 NFL seasons, including 239 sacks, he has only missed action due to injury in 1983 (shoulder injury, four games).

1992: Appeared in six games and started two at midseason for the Bucs...Completed 41 of 67 passes (61.2%) in his two starts (at New Orleans, 11/1; vs. Minnesota, 11/8) for 333 yards, one TD and three interceptions...Completed a team season-high 28 passes vs. Minnesota, throwing for 239 yards...Most extensive relief performance also against Vikings at Minnesota (9/20), when he relieved Vinny Testaverde and completed 19 of 29 passes for 213 yards and a pair of TDs...Became only 11th NFL player to throw for over 32,000 yards with his 239 yards against Vikings...Moved into sixth place on the career completions list with 11 vs. Detroit (10/25), passing Ken Anderson...Also usurped sixth spot on NFL's career pass attempts table with his 25th toss at New Orleans, hurdling John Hadl...During the season, he hooked up with the 51st, 52nd and 53rd different TD targets of his career in Courtney Hawkins, Lawrence Dawsey and Willie Drewrey...Limited in preseason by a broken finger sustained the first day of training camp.

1991: Started 15 games (played in 16); Chiefs were 10-5 in his starts...Also started both playoff contests, but was forced to leave AFC Divisional Playoff Game against Buffalo with a sprained right thumb...Finished as the AFC's sixth-rated passer with a 79.3 rating...Completed 256 of 434 passes (59.0%) for 2,965 yards, 17 touchdowns and 14 interceptions...Started first 14 games, but had 35-game string of starts (longest of his career) snapped at San Francisco (12/14)...Replaced injured Mark Vlasic in San Francisco contest, then started the final regular season game at L.A. Raiders (12/22) as well as the two playoff games...Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week after leading the Chiefs to a thrilling 24-21 comeback victory over the Raiders on Monday night (10/28), directing two fourth-quarter TD drives...Only 300-yard outing of season came at Cleveland (11/24), as he completed 30 of 50 aerials for 319 yards, one TD and two interceptions...Returned to starting role at the Raiders (12/22), hitting 14 of 20 passes for 277 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions...Led eight drives in that Raider contest with three resulting in touchdowns, two in field goals, two in missed field goals and a running out of the clock...Completed 14 of 23 pass attempts in the playoffs for 111 yards, one TD and one interception.

1990: Turned in his most remarkable season, completing 258 of 444 passes for 3,444 yards and 23 touchdowns with just four interceptions...Chosen by his teammates as the Chiefs' MVP...Named Comeback Player of the Year by NFL Films...Interception rate of 0.9% is the second-best in the history of the NFL, trailing just Joe Ferguson's 0.66% mark in the 1976 season (1 in 151)...No quarterback with 200 or more passes in a season has ever thrown fewer interceptions...Had a string of 233 consecutive passes without a pickoff, the second-longest in NFL history...Threw no interceptions in 14 of his 16 games...Compiled a career-high 96.3 passer rating, ranking him third in the NFL in 1991 just behind Buffalo's Jim Kelly and Houston's Warren Moon...Had seven passes of 60 more yards, including bombs of 90, 86 and 83 yards...Threw for a career-high 395 yards in a Monday Night contest at Denver (9/17) completing 26 of 45 passes for two TDs, including an 83-yard touchdown bomb...Threw 14 touchdown passes in a four-game stretch (11/18 to 12/9) as Chiefs won four straight in a drive to the playoffs...That stretch included a 15-21, 331-yard performance at New England (12/2)...Suffered a fractured pinky on his left hand in third quarter of following game vs. Houston (12/16), but had finger set and splinted and returned to game...Played final two regular season games plus playoff contest with a special cast, but still endured extreme pain on each hand-off...Completed 25 of 32 passes (78.1%) for 276 yards in season-ending win at Chicago (12/29)...Made second career playoff appearance at Miami (1/5/91) and was 17 of 30 for 269 yards, one TD and one interception.

1989: Played in 12 games, including 10 starts, in three separate stints as the number one quarterback...Compiled 6-4 mark as a starter (Chiefs were 2-3-1 in other games)...Completed 196 of 324 for 2,529 yards, 11 TDs and 16 interceptions...Ranked third in the NFL behind Joe Montana and Bobby Hebert with a 60.5 completion percentage...Concluded season as the AFC's fifth-rated passer with a rating of 75.8...Led Chiefs to a strong 4-1 finish, completing 76 of 128 passes (59.3%) for 1,038 yards, seven TDs and just four interceptions in those five games...Most prolific day of season came at Pittsburgh (10/29) with 24 completions in 36 attempts (66.7%) for 338 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions...Started first three games of season before giving way to Ron Jaworski for next two contests...Regained starting job vs. Dallas (10/22) but held it for just one game before Steve Pelluer took over...Replaced an injured Pelluer at Cleveland (11/19) and started the remaining five games.

1988: Joined Chiefs prior to season in a trade with the Buccaneers that brought Mark Robinson and two draft choices to Tampa Bay...Entered the season as Bill Kenney's backup but ended up putting up prolific numbers...Passed for 2,935 yards on 224 completions in 414 attempts...Did not start opener, but subbed for Kenney at halftime in Game 2 vs. Seattle (9/11) and was good on 22 of 38 pass attempts for 244 yards and one touchdown...Earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors a week later in his first start for the Chiefs, leading Kansas City to a 20-13 win over Denver with 21 completions on 35 attempts for 259 yards and two touchdowns...Followed with three scoring passes the next week against the Chargers (9/25)...Collected only 300-yard effort of 1988 at N.Y. Jets (10/2), hurling for 312 yards, two TDs and two interceptions on 17-34 passing...Came back to lead Kansas City to a 31-28 win over eventual AFC champion Cincinnati, and started the remainder of the season...Passed for over 250 yards in seven of his 11 starts.

1987: Chosen as the Bucs' MVP following conclusion of season...Compiled a Buc-record 85.3 passer rating...Completed 159 of 275 aerials (57.8%) for 1,891 yards, 14 TDs and only seven interceptions...Started first eight non-strike games before giving way to Vinny Testaverde for final four contests...Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week after season-opening performance against Atlanta that included a career-high five touchdown passes among 24 completions in 34 attempts for 333 yards...Cleared the 300-yard mark at St. Louis, passing for 303 yards, three TDs and no interceptions on 23-of-37 accuracy.

1986: Started first two games of season and saw action in four other games as a backup to Steve Young...Had a disappointing season-opener with seven interceptions vs. San Francisco (9/7), but rebounded to complete 18 of 28 passes for 181 yards vs. Minnesota (9/14)...Minnesota effort included a team-record 15 consecutive completions...Served as the holder in all 16 games, and threw 100th career TD pass on a fake field goal.

1985: Started first 11 games before Bucs began to test first-round draft choice Steve Young...Among NFC leaders in passing yardage and touchdowns when replaced in starting lineup...Threw 19 TD passes to fall one short of Buc record, and was leading the NFC in that category after 11 games...365-yard performance (19 of 32, four TDs) at Miami (10/20) still ranks as the second-best game of his career...Also surpassed 300-yard mark vs. Chicago, completing 23 of 43 passes for 346 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions.

THE BUCS' FIRST MR. IRRELEVENT

When the Bucs acquired defensive back Garry Lewis in an August 26, 1992 trade with Dallas, it set the wheels in motion for Tampa Bay to have its first-ever Mr. Irrelevent, the final player chosen in the NFL College Draft.

Originally the Buccaneers were supposed to give Dallas a ninth-round draft choice for Lewis. But when the NFL's new labor arrangement provided for only an eight-round draft, a proviso in the trade to cover this situation went into effect.

That proviso called for the teams to switch selections in the final round of the revised draft if Tampa Bay's pick was earlier. With Dallas having emerged as the Super Bowl champions, every team in the league had a selection earlier than the Cowboys.

Thus Dallas utilized the seventh pick in the eighth round (Dave Thomas, DB, Tennessee) and Tampa Bay had the 28th pick of the round and the 224th overall.

With the choice the Bucs' took Daron Alcorn, placekicker from the University of Akron, who became Mr. Irrelevent XVIII. Alcorn was feted in Southern California's Orange County from June 22nd to the 27th at numerous events and was presented with the Lowsman Trophy, emblematic of final selection. The annual celebration, organized by businessman Paul Salata in 1976, annually salutes the NFL's final selection.

COLLEGE Outstanding athlete who excelled in football and baseball...A member of a Florida Marlins' farm team at the time of his Buccaneer draft selection, he has committed to the NFL out of a "passion for football"...Called a "premier safety in college football," by Stanford Coach Bill Walsh who added "I would doubt that there's a better hitter in college football."...Former quarterback who gained a reputation for devastating hits and intelligent decisions in two seasons as a safety...A sensation in 1992, he finished his Stanford career with 102 tackles (including seven in Blockbuster Bowl win over Penn State), two fumbles caused, one recovered, four interceptions and one sack...As a quarterback he completed 17 of 39 (43.6%) for 229 yards (3 Ints) while rushing 29 times for 53 yards...Chosen by the Buccaneers in the third round of the 1993 Draft as the 82nd player selected overall with a pick obtained from San Diego in draft day tradedown.

1992: Emerged as an All-Pac 10 and third-team AP All-America choice in only year as starting free safety for Stanford...Led the Cardinal with 83 tackles and recorded four interceptions, two fumbles caused, one fumble recovered, one sack and two other tackles for loss...Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week after dominating Notre Dame with bone-jarring, fumble-causing stop of Jerome Bettis (among nine tackles) and key end-zone interception as Stanford won 33-16 at South Bend...Another key big-game performance came against USC with 27-yard scoring interception return and 12 tackles...Recorded 11 tackles against Washington and 10 against UCLA (also fumble caused and recovered)...Played in Hula Bowl and Japan Bowl.

1991: Played in ten games as a safety after requesting Coach Denny Green to switch him to defense...Started first two games at strong safety...Recorded 19 tackles...Ferocious special teams player who recovered three onside kickoffs...His kickoff tackle against Oregon is considered his most memorable.

1990: Appeared in five games at quarterback, completing 10 of 25 passes for 184 yards...Career-long 52-yard completion against Oregon...Also gained 50 yards rushing on 19 carries.

1989: Played in three games at QB (7-14, 45 yards) after being red-shirted in 1988.

The 1993 NFL Draft was not Buccaneer third-round pick John Lynch's first draft experience as he was selected by the Florida Marlins in the second round of the 1992 baseball draft. Lynch became the first pitcher to start a game for a Marlin-affiliated team (for Class A Erie) and his hat is displayed at the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

PERSONAL

A second-round selection of the Florida Marlins (66th pick) overall in the 1992 l ball draft...Finished 1992 with a 2.13 ERA (0-3 record) for Erie and was playing ... Kane County (IL) when drafted by the Bucs in 1993...His fastball has been clocked at 95 miles per hour...Majoring in communications at Stanford...A broken fibula suffered in the first game sidelined him for most of his senior season at Torrey Pines High School near his hometown of Solana Beach, California...Still passed for 541 yards and five TDs in six quarters in run-and-shoot offense...Running the option as junior he passed for 1,282 yards (83-153, 54.2%) and 15 TDs while rushing for 542 yards and five TDs to earn team MVP honors...Named All-West by Super Prep and All-Academic for San Diego County...Two-year captain in football and twice an all-league selection in baseball...Hobbies include beach volleyball and golf...His favorite player is John Elway (Lynch and Elway had the same high school coach – Jack Neumeier)...His father John, is president of Noble Broadcasting and was a linebacker at Drake and briefly played with the Pittsburgh Steelers...Given name is John Terrence Lynch...Born on September 25, 1971, in Hinsdale, Illinois.

MILTON MACK

Cornerback — 21

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 195 Born: 9/20/63

College: Alcorn State NFL Year: 7
Bucs Acq: Plan B Free Agent, 1992

PRO

Won training camp battle for right cornerback slot after coming over from New Orleans via Plan B...Played five seasons for the Saints, appearing in 67 games as a cornerback and nickel back, starting 10 contests...10 career interceptions include three in 1992, his highest total since his rookie season of 1987...Set personal career-high marks in 1992 in starts, tackles, single-game tackles and passes defensed.

1992: Started all 16 games at right cornerback for the Bucs...Turned in 50 tackles and 16 passes defensed...Secured two of the Bucs' victories with game-ending plays: at Detroit (9/27), made game-saving tackle at Bucs' three-yard line, keeping WR Brett Perriman out of the end zone with the winning TD as time expired; at Phoenix (12/27), came down with touchdown-denying interception in the end zone on the Cardinals' last pass...Interception at Phoenix was his second of the game, giving him the first multiple-interception game of his career...Also had a career-high seven tackles (six solos) in Phoenix contest...Eclipsed previous season highs in starts (16), tackles (50) and passes defensed (16)...Recorded first INT since 1989 vs. Detroit (10/25).

1991: Played in eight games and started the last three for the Saints...Placed on injured reserve for six weeks with a hamstring injury...Came off injured reserve to make six tackles and defense two passes vs. Dallas (12/8)...Made 12 tackles and defensed two passes.

1990: Saints' nickel back through first half of season until the emergence of rookie Vince Buck...Played in all 16 contests and started two (at Houston, 10/21 and vs. Detroit, 10/28)...Tallied 19 stops on defense, including four vs. Phoenix (9/23) and vs. Detroit (10/28)...Defensed two passes in that fall contest with the Cardinals...Saw increased playing time at left corner in second half at San Francisco (12/23).

1989: Started at right cornerback for first two games...Started two more games at nickel position...Second career sack came at Green Bay on 9/17 as he also set a then-career high of five tackles...Interceptions came on back-to-back weeks (vs. Jets 10/15 and at Rams 10/22).

1988: Made first NFL start at Washington (11/6) and sprained his ankle which caused him to miss the next two weeks...Season statistics included 19 tackles, one interception, one QB sack (at Minnesota on 12/4) and a forced fumble.

1987: Played extensively for the Saints in his rookie year, primarily in nickel and dime situations...Played in 13 games and had 25 tackles, seven passes defensed and a career-high four interceptions...Made a 26-yard interception return vs. Green Bay (12/27).

TIMELINE

Mack was drafted by the New Orleans Saints in the fifth round in 1987. He was the 123rd overall selection. The Buccaneers signed him as a Plan B free agent on 3/12/92.

Ht: 5-8 Wt: 175 Born: 10/8/65

College: Florida State NFL Year: 6
Bucs Acq: Signed as an unrestricted free agent, 1993

PRO

One of the league's standout cornerbacks, Mayhew joins the Bucs after leading NFC cornerbacks in interceptions over the last three years with 13...Played at LCB with Washington Redskins and is expected to see action on the right side for the Bucs...INT total in that span also ties for the second-highest total in the NFL...Has started 48 of 58 games over the last four years for the Redskins, including all 16 in Washington's Super Bowl Championship 1991 season...Extensive playoff experience includes seven games (and seven starts) and an interception in each of the last two postseasons...Also has two 100-tackle seasons to his credit, in 1990 and 1991...Projected as a backup after joining Washington from Buffalo through Plan B, Mayhew picked up the starting assignment midway through 1989 and never relinquished it...A sure tackler, has 321 stops to his credit, along with 42 passes defensed...Had string of 40 straight starts (and 53 of Washington's last 54) snapped with a broken arm in 1992, but returned in time to help lead Redskins to opening-round playoff win.

1992: Started the first 10 games at left cornerback and was tied for the team lead with three interceptions before suffering a broken right forearm vs. Kansas City (11/15)...Did not inform coaches of injury, and played three quarters with the broken arm, turning in 10 tackles and two more stops on special teams...Injury shortened outstanding season in which he was also tied for the team lead with 10 passes defensed and had 62 tackles...First action off IR occurred in Washington's opening playoff contest at Minnesota (1/3/93), and he pitched in with a pair of tackles, a pass defensed and an interception, returning the pick 44 yards to set up the Redskins' first field goal...Posted a season-high 10 tackles vs. N.Y. Giants (11/1) and added a pass deflection...Came up big on Monday Night vs. Denver (10/12), notching eight tackles, knocking away three passes and recovering a fumble while also standing out on special teams...Posted back-to-back contests with an interception in games 3-4, burning Detroit (9/20) and Phoenix (10/4)...Also rerouted a Troy Aikman pass in season opener at Dallas on Monday Night, bringing it back 25 yards to set up his squad's only touchdown...Had at least one pass deflection in eight of the 10 games he played...Interception total of three had him tied for fifth in the NFC before his injury.

1991: Started all 16 games for the Super Bowl Champion Redskins, registering career highs in tackles (108), passes defensed (16) and forced fumbles (2)...Also notched three interceptions to give him 10 picks over a two-year period...Started all three playoff games, including Super Bowl XXVI, and posted an interception in the playoff opener vs. Atlanta (1/5/92)...Scored first NFL TD on a 31-yard interception return against Dallas (11/24)...That followed his most dominant outing of 1991, a 10-tackle performance at Pittsburgh (11/17) that included an interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery...Picked off three passes during a four-game period (also at Phoenix, 12/8)...Logged top tackle effort of season vs. Cleveland (10/13) with 12 stops...Also excelled on special teams, notching 16 tackles.

1990: Awarded the starting left cornerback spot at the beginning of the season, Mayhew celebrated with a pair of interceptions in the season opener vs. Cardinals (1/9)...Went on to lead Redskins and tie for third in the league with a career-best seven interceptions...Also accounted for 104 tackles, including a career-high 84 solos...Reached double digits in tackles in four games, including a career high 13 vs. Philadelphia (10/21)...Strung together four straight games with an interception (Weeks 9 through 12), including three in 11 days: Philadelphia (11/12), New Orleans (11/18), Dallas (11/22) and Miami (12/2)...Miami interception led to team's first touchdown in 42-20 rout of Dolphins...Ended the season the way he began it, victimizing Buffalo with an interception (12/3)...Started 15 games and played in all 16...Also turned in 10 passes defensed.

1989: Slated to be a backup after coming over from Buffalo via Plan B, Mayhew was given his first starting chance in Game 10 against Philadelphia (11/12) and was awarded a game ball in the Redskins' 10-3 victory...Finished with 47 tackles, including 41 solos...Also turned in big play against San Diego (12/10), batting away a fourth-down pass in the end zone to preserve a 26-21 win...Started the final seven games and pitched in with six passes defensed...Appeared in all 16 games and added six special teams tackles.

1988: Suffered a wrist injury early in Bills' training camp and spent the entire season on injured reserve.

TIMELINE Mayhew first entered the league as the 10th-round Draft choice of Buffalo in 1988. After spending the 1988 season on injured reserve, he was signed by Washington through Plan B on 3/7/89. After four seasons with the Redskins, the Buccaneers signed Mayhew as an unrestricted free agent on 3/30/93.

COLLEGE & PERSONAL Contributed 186 tackles and five interceptions in four seasons at Florida State...Also broke up 24 passes and recovered three fumbles while earning four letters during his collegiate career...Started 10 of 11 games as a senior in 1987, teaming with Deion Sanders to form one of the nation's top cornerback duos...Turned in one of his most outstanding games as a collegian vs. North Carolina in 1985, breaking up four passes and intercepting two, one of which he returned 62 yards for a touchdown...Also stood out in track, competing in the 100- and 200-meters and helping the FSU 400-meter relay team qualify for a berth in the 1986 NCAA's...Won first-team all-state honors as a senior at Florida High School in Tallahassee, Florida...Earned his bachelor's degree at FSU in less than four years and has been enrolled at the prestigious Georgetown Law School...Was working in the banking business in North Carolina at the time he was drafted...Very active in Africare, a development organization with projects in Senegal and Mali...Has personally donated sizeable funds to Africare and has sought to involve other NFL players in developmental efforts in Africa...Also volunteers time to the Washington office of Africare and has visited the developmental sites in Africa...Upon signing with the Buccaneers, he gave his high school coach Art Witters a new Corvette, fulfilling a promise made as a prep...Given name is Martin R. Mayhew...Graduated from Florida State with a degree in management...Born October 8, 1965, in Daytona Beach, Florida.

PRO

A former first-round draft choice with great size and strength, McRae has started 20 games over two seasons with the Bucs...Started all 16 games in 1992 after notching four starts as a rookie...A left tackle in college, McRae has seen action in the NFL at both right tackle and right guard.

1992: Started all 16 games, alternating between right tackle and right guard...Opened season as Bucs' starting right tackle, where he alternated in platoon with Rob Taylor...Switched to right guard slot and held that assignment for six games...Reverted to right tackle in 10th game vs. Chicago (11/15) and remained in starting role through rest of season...Blocked a field goal attempt by the L.A. Rams' Tony Zendejas (12/6)...Play improved steadily over course of season.

1991: Saw playing time in all 16 games for the Bucs and started four at right tackle...Progress was slowed at first by missing 26 days of training camp due to contract negotiations...First NFL start came on 9/22 against Buffalo...Suffered a groin pull during practice and did not start against the Eagles (10/6)...Returned to lineup for starts against New Orleans (10/20) and Green Bay (10/27)...Used as extra tight end in short-yardage downs.

GOOD GUYS

Many Buccaneers are active in the community helping others less fortunate. Here are just a few examples of the good guys on the team.

Paul Gruber and Ian Beckles are regular visitors to The Children's Home.

Ron Hall sponsors a Thanksgiving dinner at a Tampa restaurant for underprivileged children and a children's Christmas party at a local hospital.

Rob Taylor is an active speaker for area church groups and Fellowship of Christian Athletes meetings.

Anthony Muñoz was selected by President Clinton to join a special committee of well-known athletes to work with children on educational issues. The committee was composed of athletes such as Joe Montana, Dan Marino and Michael Jordan who have shown exemplary dedication in helping others.

Broderick Thomas helped make the holidays brighter with a gift program called "The Sandman's Christmas."

ANTHONY MUÑOZ

Tackle — 78

Ht: 6-6 Wt: 285 Born: 8/19/58

College: USC NFL Year: 14
Bucs Acq: Signed as an unrestricted free agent, 1993

PRO Appears destined for the Hall of Fame at the end of his playing career...Considered by many to be the finest offensive lineman ever to play the game...Walk to Hall of Fame almost began at end of 1992 season, when he retired, but is on hold again as he came out of retirement and signed as an unrestricted free agent with the Buccaneers...Named the NFL Man of the Year (awarded to the player who most excels as a role model on and off the field) in 1991 after being chosen as the Cincinnati Bengal Man of the Year each year from 1987 through 1991...Selected to the Pro Bowl after 11 consecutive seasons, from 1981 to 1991...His 11 selections to the all-star game is a Pro Bowl record, and his nine playing appearances ties him for third on the all-time list...String was snapped in 1992 when Muñoz played just eight games sandwiched around two four-game trips to IR...Chosen by the NFL Alumni Association as the Offensive Lineman of the Year in 1982, 1987 and 1989...His citation from Alumni Association reads: "The NFL has three levels of offensive linemen. The bottom rung is for players aspiring to make the Pro Bowl. The next step is for those who have earned all-star status. Then there's Anthony Muñoz. He's alone at the top, a sure Hall of Famer"...Also selected as the league's Offensive Lineman of the Year in 1987 and given the same honor by the NFLPA in 1981, 1985, 1988 and 1989 and by Seagrams' in 1981 and 1986...A unanimous choice on the NFL Team of the '80s...Has played in 185 career games, starting all but one of them...Also played in and started all but one of Cincinnati's nine postseason games since 1980, including Super Bowls XVI and XXIII...A pure and agile athlete, he has also been on the receiving end of seven passes, four of them for TDs...Physical gifts include size, outstanding agility and balance, tremendous foot quickness, fast hands, aggressiveness and a willingness to play through pain...A perennial captain, he was one of Cincinnati's unquestioned leaders throughout the 1980s.

1992: Started eight games despite two stints on injured reserve...Started first five games before shoulder ailments forced him to IR for four games...Returned to start at N.Y. Jets (11/15), but injured knee in that game and went back to IR for four games...Came back once again to start final two contests.

1991: Named to 11th straight Pro Bowl...Played in and started 13 games...Missed the final three contests with an elbow injury...Those three games were the first non-strike regular season games he had missed in his career, breaking a string of 177 (non-strike) consecutive games...Capped season with prestigious NFL Man of the Year Award.

1990: Started every game for seventh straight year (excluding strike games) and notched Pro Bowl selection number 10...A consensus All-Pro and voted the AFC's top offensive lineman by USA Today...Played through a variety of injuries, including a shoulder separation, a torn rotator cuff and a swollen left eye as a result of being poked...Did not leave lineup until AFC Division Playoff game at L.A. Raiders (1/13/91), the only playoff game he missed while a Bengal.

1989: Made annual trip to Honolulu for the Pro Bowl after his ninth consecutive selection...Recognized as the league's finest offensive lineman from both the NFLPA and the NFL Alumni Association...Also named All-Pro by virtually every publication and organization that chose to select a team...Started all 16 games at left tackle.

1988: An eighth consecutive Pro Bowl selection followed another dominating season in which he was named Offensive Lineman of the Year by the NFLPA for the third time...Unanimous choice for All-Pro recognition...Started all 16 games at left tackle...Play continued to improve despite already being recognized as the best offensive tackle in the league.

1987: Earned seventh straight Pro Bowl excursion but did not attend game due to shoulder surgery in mid-January...Suffered an injury to the rotator cuff area of his left shoulder vs. Miami on 11/8, but did not miss a non-strike game...Garnered his second NFL Alumni Association Offensive Lineman of the Year award and was awarded the short-lived NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year award given by Miller...Displayed versatile talents by making two catches for 15 yards and a touchdown on tackle-eligible plays...Touchdown was the fourth of his NFL career...Started all 11 non-replacement games...Credited by coaches with allowing just 1.5 sacks.

1986: Was the only unanimous selection to the AFC squad in the Pro Bowl, his sixth straight selection...Named to every All-Pro team in the land...Received his second Seagrams' Sports Award as the top offensive lineman in the NFL...Played in every game for the seventh straight season and started all 16 at left tackle...On the receiving end of two passes, both for TDs, scoring a career-high 12 points.

1985: Made fifth annual February expedition to Hawaii for yet another Pro Bowl as the starting left tackle...Consensus pick for postseason NFL All-Pro teams...Started all 16 games and continued string of not missing a game in his NFL career...Caught one pass for one yard.

1984: Fourth-annual junket to Pro Bowl in Honolulu capped another All-Pro season...Started all 16 games at left tackle...Added another weapon to his arsenal with his first career TD on a tackle-eligible one-yard reception...Made a tough, low catch in a muddy end zone to force overtime at Cleveland (12/2) in an eventual 20-17 win.

1983: Extended fledgling Pro Bowl selection streak to three years...Played in all 16 games, but started 15, marking the only game in his career that he did not start...Not placed in starting lineup for one game after hurting ankle week before; came in by second series and finished the contest...Earned usual sweep of all-pro awards.

1982: Established himself among NFL's elite offensive linemen in just third season, earning second straight selection to Pro Bowl and host of awards...Started all nine contests.

1981: So dominating in only his second NFL campaign that he was named the NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year, an honor echoed by Seagrams' and the NFLPA...Started all

16 games at left tackle...Key man in Cincinnati's drive to Super Bowl XVI...Planted the seed for his unmatched Pro Bowl streak with his first selection.

1980: Stepped right in and started all 16 games as a rookie...Made vast potential clear and helped bring about a drastic improvement in the Bengals' offensive line...Named to all the all-rookie squads as a starting tackle.

TIMELINE Muñoz was Cincinnati's top pick in the 1980 Draft and the third player selected overall. He played 13 seasons for the Bengals before announcing his retirement at the end of the 1992 season. He reconsidered his retirement in the spring of 1993, and as an unrestricted free agent, signed with the Buccaneers on 4/23/93. GAMES (STARTS): 185 (184); 1980: 16 (16); 1981: 16 (16); 1982: 9 (9); 1983: 16 (15); 1984: 16 (16); 1985: 16 (16); 1986: 16 (16); 1987: 11 (11) 1988: 16 (16); 1989: 16 (16); 1990: 16 (16); 1991: 13 (13); 1992: 8 (8).

COLLEGE PERSONAL An All-America as a junior at USC, Muñoz was the third pick in the 1980 Draft despite missing almost all of his senior season with a major knee injury...Preseason All-America choice before senior season and a leading candidate for the Outland Trophy...Senior campaign cut short with torn ligaments in his left knee suffered in the first quarter of the first game, vs. Texas Tech...Sat out remaining 10 regular season games, but returned for 1980 Rose Bowl against Ohio State...Played up to old standards in Trojans' 17-16 Rose Bowl win...Named All-America and All-Pac 10 after 1978 season...Also pitched as a reserve on Southern Cal's 1978 National Championship team, posting a 1-0 record and striking out 11 batters in 13 innings of work...Ran a 4.9 40-yard dash as a collegian...Unanimous prep All-American at Chaffey High School in Ontario, California...His off-the-field service has matched his immense contribution to football...Sam Wyche says of Muñoz: "To tell you a little bit about Anthony, he is a better person than he is a player, and he's one of the best players in the history of the game."...His selection as NFL Man of the Year in 1991 recognized a lifetime worth of charitable work...Split his $25,000 Man of the Year award between the Children's Hospital in Cincinnati and a nationally-syndicated radio show dealing with the family...Many activities aimed at youth, including a drug and alcohol prevention program in schools in which he has spoken at over 120 schools...Also on board of directors for Camp Joy, an education camp for underprivileged children...Co-chairs the Anthony Muñoz/Cystic Fibrosis golf tournament (now in its sixth year) and also co-chaired another golf tournament for Citizens Concerned for Community Values (also on its Advisory Board)...On Boys Hope Board of Directors...Served as a translator and medical assistant on four-day trip to Mexico with Christian Hands in Action in 1987 and 1988...Spoke to 15,000 U.S. military personnel at bases in Hawaii in 1985, 1986 and 1987...Along with Cincinnati Bengals' Man of the Year honor in 1981 and from 1987 through 1991, was presented the Bart Starr Award by Athletes in Action in 1990 for his service to his community and was a Byron "Whizzer" White Award finalist in 1987...Partner with Cincinnati teammate Tim Krumrie in Acceleration Training of Cincinnati...Muñoz has even hit the big screen, playing cameo roles in the movies "The Right Stuff" and "Borderline"...Part owner of a Cincinnati restaurant called The Pizza Tower...Hobbies include golf, softball and running...Married, wife DeDe, with two children, Michael (11) and Michele (9)...Given name is Michael Anthony Muñoz...Graduated from USC with a degree in public administration...Born August 19, 1958, in Ontario, California.

PRO

One of the top placekickers in the history of the NFL, Murray joined the Bucs midway through 1992...Finished 1992 as the fourth-leading active scorer in the league, trailing only Kansas City PK Nick Lowery, Cincinnati PK Jim Breech and N.Y. Giants PK Matt Bahr...His 1,141 career points places him 13th on the NFL's all-time scoring list, just one point behind Matt Bahr for 12th and 72 points behind Chris Bahr for the 11th spot...His 249 career successful field goals is 10th-most in league history and trails only Lowery and Pittsburgh's Gary Anderson among active players...Has averaged 87.8 points scored per season over 13 campaigns, despite a career-low 28 points in eight games in 1992...Phenomenal career field goal percentage of 74.6%, including three seasons of over 90% accuracy...Turned in one of the most incredible two-year performances in league history with back-to-back 20-of-21 seasons in 1988-89...Twice tied NFL single-season field goal percentage record in those seasons, a mark since broken by a 17-of-17 1991 season by the Rams' Tony Zendejas...1988-89 accomplishments included a string of 19 straight made field goals...Has connected on an incredible 17 field goals of 50 yards or more, just four behind all-time NFL-leader Morten Anderson (New Orleans) and two behind second-place man Lowery...Has hit at least one 50-yard field goal in 10 of his 13 seasons, including two seasons with three such kicks...Has hit six game-winning field goals during his career, including three in overtime...Enters 1992 with an ongoing streak of 124 consecutive successful PATs, and has not missed one since 1988...Has converted 98.7% of his career extra point attempts...Selected to the Pro Bowl following 1980 and 1989 seasons, and was the MVP in the 1980 game, the only rookie ever to be thus honored.

1992: Joined the Bucs in November and proceeded to hit four of eight FG tries and 13 of 13 PATs in seven games...Also had one-game stint with Kansas City, hitting on his only field goal attempt, a 52-yarder vs. Pittsburgh (10/25)...Connected on the Bucs' longest field goal of 1992, a 47-yard boot vs. L.A. Rams (12/6)...Scored nine points against the Rams, vaulting him past Gino Cappeletti for 13th place on the NFL's all-time scoring list...Was true on both field goal attempts, 31 and 40 yards, and scored eight points in first game as a Buccaneer, a 20-17 win over Chicago (11/15)...Had hit five of six FGAs in 1992 before finale at Phoenix, where extremely sloppy conditions led to three misses in three attempts.

1991: Scored 97 points for the playoff-bound Lions...Was true on 19 of 28 field goal attempts and all 40 extra point tries...Called on to try four field goals of 50 or more yards, and was good on two...Twice pitched in with three field goals, vs. Green Bay (9/8) and vs. Chicago (11/28)...Put up highest point total since 1985...Also tallied 12 points in two playoff games, connecting on two of three field goal attempts and all six PATs.

1990: Forced out of five games, and bothered in others, with a hip ailment, but still hit 13 of 19 field goals...Extended PAT streak with 34 successes in as many tries...Did not lead the Lions in scoring for the first time in his career, trailing Barry Sanders' 96 points and breaking a 10-year streak...Placed on injured reserve prior to Kansas City contest (10/23)...In first game off IR, drilled field goals of 24, 32, 43 and 45 yards vs. Denver (11/22)...Surpassed 1,000-point plateau for career with eight-point night against Bears (12/16).

1989: Turned in second Pro Bowl season with outstanding 20-of-21 field goal accuracy...Marked second straight season of 20-for-21 kicking...Also perfect on 36 extra point attempts, scoring a team-high 94 points...Extended successful field goal string to 19, shattering previous Lion record of 12...Only miss of season hit the crossbar at Green Bay (10/29)...Scored 15 points vs. Buccaneers (12/17) on four field goals and three PATs...Selected to AP's second-team All-Pro squad and was an All-NFC pick by Football News.

1988: Tied a (since-broken) NFL record by making good on an amazing 20 of 21 field goal tries...Only miss came from 52 yards...Named honorable mention All-Pro by AP and was a Pro Bowl alternate...Finished season with 12 consecutive field goals made.

1987: Led Lions with 81 points on 20-of-32 field goals and 21-of-21 PATs...Saw string of 73 straight games played snapped by NFLPA strike...Hit a season-high four field goals in five attempts in season opener at Minnesota (9/13)...Also asked to perform punting duties at Minnesota due to injury to regular punter, and responded with kicks of 46 and 33 yards...Drilled a 53-yard FG vs. L.A. Rams (12/6), just one yard shy of his own team record.

1986: Tallied a team-high 85 points, in the process setting a new team record for career scoring...Was good on 18 of 25 field goals...Recorded his fifth career game-winning field goal at Philadelphia (11/16)...Booted his first career punt, a 37-yarder, while in field goal formation vs. Atlanta (12/15).

1985: Eclipsed the 100-point scoring mark for the fourth time in his six-year career, tallying 109 points...Was good on 26 of 31 field goals, his most FGs made since his rookie year of 1980...Missed a PAT attempt vs. Dallas (9/15), his first miss since 1980.

1984: Won two games with last-minute field goals and led the Lions with 91 points...Downed Atlanta (9/9) in overtime with a clutch 48-yard kick...Also provided game-winner vs. Minnesota (10/21) with a 41-yard FG with 49 seconds left in the game...Was good on all 31 PATs, his fourth straight season without missing an extra point try.

1983: Put up 113 points to lead the Detroit squad...Was true on 25 of 32 FG attempts...Kicked a 54-yard field goal at Cincinnati (12/11), setting a career high and tying a team record...Matched that feat in the postseason with a 54-yarder vs. San Francisco in Lions' narrow 24-23 loss, marking the longest playoff field goal in team history.

1982: Drilled 11 of 12 field goal attempts in strike-shortened season to trail just Washington's Mark Moseley in field goal accuracy...Was also perfect on 16 of 16 extra point tries to lead the team with 49 points, his career low as a Lion.

1981: Racked up a career-high 121 points, tying for the NFC lead...Broke a Lion record with 46 PATs, eclipsing Doak Walker's old mark...Hit a 53-yarder vs. Chicago (10/19)...A true long-distance threat, he hit on three of four tries from 50 or more yards.

1980: Won a training camp battle for the placekicking spot and justified spot by turning in Pro Bowl season...Hit on 27 field goals in 42 tries, both still career highs...Led team with 116 points...Very first field goal attempt was a successful 52-yarder at L.A. Rams (9/7)...First trip to Hawaii resulted in Pro Bowl MVP honors as he booted four field goals to become the only rookie ever to take the MVP award.

TIMELINE Murray was selected in the seventh round of the 1980 Draft by Detroit, the 166th player taken overall. He played 12 seasons for Detroit before the Lions waived their first refusal rights, making him a free agent on 4/29/92. He signed with Kansas City on 10/24/92 and played one game as a Chief before being released on 10/27/92. The Buccaneers signed Murray on 11/11/92.

HARDY NICKERSON

Linebacker — 56

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 230 Born: 9/1/65

College: California NFL Year: 7
Bucs Acq: Signed as an unrestricted free agent, 1993

PRO One of the most productive and consistent inside linebackers in the NFL during his career, Nickerson is expected to immediately bolster the Bucs' linebacking crew. An intelligent and intense performer, the Bucs plan to have him on the field for almost all defensive sets. Led Pittsburgh in tackles each of the last two years. Took over starting inside linebacker job in only his second season and has held it since. Career totals include 426 tackles, 9.5 sacks, five forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and an interception. Also has playoff experience, starting two games in 1989 and one last year, and accumulating 14 tackles and three passes defensed. Among the Steelers top three tacklers in four of the last five seasons, falling short only in 1989 when he missed six games with an ankle injury.

1992: Paced the 11-5 AFC Central Champion Steelers with 114 tackles, a career-high, marking the second consecutive year he led his team in tackling. Played in and started 15 games, sitting out only the season opener at Houston (9/6). An extremely consistent performer, with at least six tackles in 13 of the 15 games in which he played. Came up with a season-high 16 stops at Buffalo (11/8), along with a fumble recovery. Also posted 15 tackles at Green Bay (9/27) and broke up a pass. Dominated Cincinnati (10/19) with six tackles, a sack and three passes broken up. Also posted a sack in rematch with Bengals (11/29) among nine tackles. Started the Steelers' playoff game vs. Buffalo (1/9/92) and pitched in with seven tackles (six solos) and a pass defensed.

1991: Led the Pittsburgh defense with 94 tackles (70 solos and 24 assists were also team highs). Also added a sack and a pair of forced fumbles. Played in all 16 games and made 14 starts, identical totals to 1990. Two games without starts occured against Houston (11/24, 12/8) when Steelers opened in dime defenses. Led the defense or shared the lead in tackles in seven games, including the first three of the season. Garnered a season-high 12 stops at Buffalo (9/8). Also notched eight solo tackles and a forced fumble at Indianapolis (10/6) and eight tackles at Cleveland (10/27). Came up with only sack of the season at Dallas (11/28) among seven tackles. Finished season on high note, punishing Cleveland (12/22) with 12 tackles and another forced fumble.

1990: Started 14 of 16 games and tied for third on the team with 67 tackles (58 solos). Also pitched in with two sacks as well as two forced fumbles. Missed two starts when team opened in dime formations. Had a sack in the opening game at Cleveland (9/9) and again vs. San Diego (10/7). Notched a season-high 10 tackles (seven solos) at L.A. Raiders (9/23). Also had nine solo stops at N.Y. Jets (11/25).

1989: Started first eight games at right inside linebacker before fracturing an ankle vs. Kansas City (10/29)...Was coming off a season-high 12-tackle performance at Houston (10/22) in game prior to injury...Missed next six games before being activated to sub in final two regular-season contests...Still finished with 35 tackles (26 solos) and a sack...Reinserted into starting lineup for playoffs, starting both contests...Pitched in with seven tackles in the postseason, including five at Houston (12/31)...Also defensed a pass in each of the two playoff contests (also at Denver (1/7).

1988: Took over starting inside linebacker slot after hot start in just his second season...Finished as second-leading tackler with 99 stops (73 solos)...Also had a career-high 3.5 sacks, forced a fumble and recovered a fumble...Contributed half-sack in opener vs. Dallas (9/4) among eight tackles...Followed with a career-best two sacks vs. Cincinnati (9/18)...Awarded his first NFL start the following week at Buffalo (9/25) and remained hot, notching a half-sack and six tackles...Made a season-high 11 tackles and forced a fumble at N.Y. Jets (10/30)...The next week, grabbed his only career interception in contest at Cincinnati (11/6)...Also forced a fumble at San Diego (12/11) while posting a season-best 10 solo tackles...Ended season having played in 15 games with 10 starts.

1987: Played in all 12 non-strike games...Playing time increased towards end of the season as he backed up inside linebacker Robin Cole...Came up with 17 tackles, 13 of which came during the final six weeks.

TIMELINE Nickerson was taken in the fifth round of the 1987 Draft by Pittsburgh, who made him the 122nd player selected overall. He played six seasons for the Steelers before signing with the Buccaneers as an unrestricted free agent on 3/18/93.

COLLEGE PERSONAL A dominating linebacker for four years at California, he left as the school's all-time career tackle leader with 501 total stops...Garnered 440 tackles in three years as a starter, during which he was chosen as the team MVP three times...An honorable mention All-America (AP) as a senior in 1986, also lauded with first-team All-Pac 10 recognition and was a semifinalist for the Dick Butkus Award...Made 132 tackles as a senior to rank eighth in the Pac 10...Nicknamed "The Hardware Man" during his collegiate career...Played in the Hula Bowl...Played LB, DT and C at Verbum Dei High School in Los Angeles, California...Helped team to 25-game winning streak, including 13 shutouts...Earned three letters in football, as well as three in track...In Tampa, plans to continue very active community involvement that has included school visits as well as helping with Project Bundle Up, Make-A-Wish and D.A.R.E....Served as 1991 spokesman for Vocational Rehabilitation Center in Pittsburgh...Also has worked with United Way and has helped tutor inner-city youth..."Field of Dreams" and "Grand Canyon" tied for his favorite movies...Favorite TV program is news show "Prime Time Live"...Favorite music is jazz, particularly Grover Washington, Jr....Most admired athlete is Muhammad Ali but would most like to meet Reggie Jackson...Hobbies include reading, martial arts and playing Sega Genesis...Married, wife Amy, with one daughter, Ashleigh Renee (2)...Amy graduated from California with honors with a double major in social science and Afro-American studies...Given name is Hardy Otto Nickerson...Graduated from California with a degree in sociology...Born September 1, 1965, in Los Angeles, California.

PRO The Bucs' starting left cornerback since the beginning of his rookie season, Reynolds turned in perhaps his finest season in 1992...Has played in 91 of 92 (non-strike) games since entering the league and started 90 of those, missing only start due to an ankle injury on 12/24/89...Already holds the tenth spot on the team's all-time Games Started list...Could move to third on team's Games Started list with full complement this year and needs eight starts to move past Mike Washington's high for defensive backs of 97...Stands fifth on the Bucs' career interception list with 16 and needs just one more pick to pull into a tie for third place...Consistently matched up one-on-one on the best receivers in the NFL...Tampa Bay's career leader with 106 passes defensed in his six-year career, including the two highest single-season totals in team history...Has scored a touchdown three different ways during his career: by interception return in 1989, by blocked punt return in 1989 and by fumble return in 1992...Has averaged 62.3 tackles per season...Also has seven forced fumbles and seven fumble recoveries.

1992: Named to Pro Football Weekly's All-Pro Team after stellar season in which he led the NFL in passes defensed (unofficial) with a Buccaneer-record 24...Consistently blanketed opponent's best receiver and forced teams to go to the other side of the field...After he knocked away five passes vs. Indianapolis (10/4), Chicago did not attempt to throw to his side the following game (10/18)...Helped spark 31-3 drubbing of Green Bay (9/13) with a 15-yard fumble return for a TD; Reynolds also applied the hit that caused Packer RB Harry Sydney to fumble...Added eight tackles and an interception vs. Packers and was chosen as The Sporting News NFL Defensive Player of the Week...Started all 16 games at LCB, extending his string to 48 consecutive starts and 90 of 91 in his career...Turned in seven separate games in which he had at least two passes broken up...Pounded Chicago (11/15) with six tackles, two passes defensed and the second sack of his career...Interception vs. Vikings (11/8).

1991: Started all 16 games at LCB and recorded 45 tackles...Had the first sack of his five-year career on 11/3 against the Vikings as he knocked Rich Gannon out of bounds for a two-yard loss...Intercepted two passes: first came at Detroit on 9/29 and second came against the Packers (10/27) on a spectacular diving grab in end zone...Led team with 10 passes defensed.

1990: Enjoyed another good season after extended holdout...Started fifteen games at left corner after missing the first game at Detroit (9/9) while on commissioner's exemption list, the only non-strike game in which he hasn't played in his six-year career...Finished with 49 tackles, three interceptions and 13 passes defensed...Also recovered two fumbles...Interceptions vs. Dallas (10/21), vs. Atlanta (12/2) and at Chicago (12/23)...Season-high seven tackles at Minnesota (9/30)...Named the Special Teams Player of the Week vs. Lions (9/23) with three special teams tackles...Blocked Chicago field goal attempt on 11/4.

1989: Turned in over 70 tackles for the third straight season and had a career-best five interceptions...Also forced two fumbles and recovered two more...Recorded TDs in consecutive games, the first two of his career: 68-yard interception return vs. Detroit (10/15); 33-yard return of his own blocked punt at Washington (10/22)...Outstanding game vs. 49ers and Joe Montana on 9/17 with only two-interception game of his career, as well as five passes defensed...Selected as Bucs' Player of the Game against both San Francisco and Detroit (10/15)...Career-high 10 tackles at Minnesota (10/1)...Had 43-game starting streak snapped in finale with Steelers (12/24) due to ankle injury but did play briefly in game, long enough to record an interception...Also intercepted a pass vs. Green Bay (12/3).

1988: Made a career-high 74 stops (64 solos) and set a then-team record with 22 passes defensed (since broke his own mark with 24 in 1992)...Intercepted four passes as first NFL interception came at New Orleans (9/25)...Others occurred at Indianapolis (10/16), vs. Buffalo (12/4) and at New England (12/11)...Two nine-tackle games: vs. Miami (10/30) and at Detroit (11/13).

1987: Tabbed by Pro Football Weekly as NFL's top rookie cornerback following outstanding first year...Led defensive backs and second on team with 70 tackles...Stepped right into starting role at cornerback and started all 12 non-strike games...Also defensed 16 passes...Big day vs. Chicago (10/25) as he made six tackles, had two passes defensed and caused a fumble, in addition to a pair of special teams tackles.

TIMELINE Reynolds was selected in the second round of the 1987 Draft. He was the 36th player chosen overall with a pick obtained from Buffalo in a draft day switch. Reynolds is the second-highest drafted defensive back in Buccaneer history (Rod Jones—first round, 1986).

PRO A one-time semi-pro player, Seals emerged as a strong starter at defensive end in 1992...Had shown great promise in parts of three seasons with the Bucs prior to 1992, but was having finest season yet in 1992 before year was cut short with a knee injury...Has played in 31 NFL games, with 17 starts, all with Bucs...Also played in 10 games and started nine in 1991 despite midseason stint on IR...Always an excellent pass rusher, Seals has seven career sacks...Also has 30 QB pressures to his credit...Gains two "extra" years of NFL experience with reclassification of eligibility rules now crediting time on injured reserve.

1992: Opened season as starting left end for second straight season and played in 11 games with eight starts...Finished season on injured reserve after aggravating knee injury...Was one of Bucs' most productive linemen before injury...Tallied a career-high 37 tackles, almost matching his previous career total of 39...Also notched a career-high five sacks after having tallied just two prior to 1992...Added career-high 13 QB pressures...Doubled previous career total with a pair of sacks vs. Green Bay (9/13)...Also had a career-high nine tackles vs. Packers and added a tackle for loss and a pass defensed...Notched second multi-sack game of his career vs. Minnesota (11/8) with two sacks among seven tackles and two quarterback pressures...Turned in fine all-around effort at Chicago (10/18) with five solo tackles, a sack, a tackle for loss and three quarterback pressures.

1991: Played in 10 games, including nine starts, as the Bucs' left defensive end in their new 4-3 defensive alignment...Started the first seven games after an impressive training camp...Injured right ankle in sixth game and later spent two games on the inactive list before returning to substitute against Detroit (11/10)...Aggravated injury during practice and spent the following four weeks on injured reserve before returning to start the final two games...Contributed 32 tackles (28 solos), plus seven tackles for loss, 10 quarterback pressures, two fumble recoveries and a sack...Immediately reestablished himself following IR stint, recording six tackles, a sack, two tackles for loss and two quarterback pressures against Chicago (12/14), his first game back.

1990: Appeared in eight games as a backup at defensive end and also saw action on kick coverage teams...Recorded six tackles, including one for a loss, four quarterback pressures and two passes defensed...Waived on 11/2 and signed with the Lions on 11/8...Inactive for Lions and released on 11/20...Signed by Indianapolis on 11/27...Active for one game with Colts but did not play.

1989: Outstanding training camp earned him a roster spot despite no experience in an NFL game...Promising season was ended after a foot injury suffered vs. the 49ers in Week Two (9/17)...Recorded first career sack at Green Bay (9/10).

1988: Spent entire 1988 season on injured reserve with lower back injury suffered during training camp...Originally considered a tight end, he learned defensive line play during camp.

TIMELINE After two years of semi-pro football with the Syracuse Express in New York, Seals was signed as a free agent by the Buccaneers on 11/18/87 (future for 1988). After two and a half seasons with Tampa Bay, he was released on 11/6/90. He was signed by Detroit on 11/8/90, but was released on 11/20. The Indianapolis Colts then signed him on 11/27/90 and released him on 12/5. Following the conclusion of the season, the Bucs re-signed Seals on 3/6/91.

PRO A Buccaneer since 1986, longer than any current Buc, Taylor has repeatedly forced himself into the starting lineup...Has fought off many challengers at the tackle position...Needs just six games played to be only the fourth Buc offensive lineman to play in 100 games and join exclusive group of Randy Grimes, Steve Wilson and George Yarno...Entering 1993 with 84 starts, he needs just five games started to tie Cecil Johnson and Richard Wood for 11th place on the Bucs' all-time list...Has played both left and right tackle as a Buc, switching to right in 1988 to make room for Paul Gruber...A starter since Bucs signed him as a free agent in 1986 (from USFL) when he stopped by Buc offices while visiting wife's family in nearby Clearwater and asked for a tryout...Skilled pass protector and devoted weight room worker...Counting USFL experience he has played in 146 pro games, starting 136 in 10 pro seasons.

1992: Reclaimed Bucs' starting right tackle slot from Charles McRae before knee injury forced him to injured reserve for the remaining seven games of the season...Spent first three games in Bucs' two-line offensive line platoon, coming in as the right tackle in the second shift First start came at Detroit (9/27)...Marked second straight season he had regained starting role after being sidelined.

1991: Enjoyed his best season as a Buccaneer...Responded to arrival of first-round pick Charles McRae by starting 12 of 16 games at right tackle and keeping McRae on the sideline...Named an offensive captain by his teammates...Consecutive games-started streak was snapped at 51 on 9/22 as McRae replaced him in the lineup...Returned to right tackle on 10/6 against the Eagles after McRae suffered a groin pull in practice...Regained starting position on 11/3 at Minnesota for the remainder of the season.

1990: Started all 16 games...Shared the game ball award with Paul Gruber for their performance against the Vikings (12/16)...Suffered a concussion against the Lions (9/23) and missed most of the second half.

1989: Part of front line that helped Bucs' offense earn NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors vs. Chicago (10/8)...Started 16 games at right tackle.

1988: Switched to right tackle with the arrival of Paul Gruber and started every game...Improved steadily during the season.

1987: Started the first five games at left tackle and allowed only one sack, despite two meetings with Chicago's All-Pro defensive end Richard Dent...Strained knee ligaments at St. Louis (11/8) and missed remainder of season.

1986: Stepped into starting left tackle position when Marvin Powell was injured in second game and started 13 games.

USFL: Started three seasons in the USFL after being waived by Philadelphia and Baltimore in the NFL...Played with Chicago Blitz in 1983 and Arizona in 1984...Finished USFL career with Houston in 1985, blocking for QB Jim Kelly...Started 52 games during those years.

TIMELINE Taylor was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 12th round of the 1982 Draft as the 328th player chosen. He was released by the Eagles on 8/23/82. Awarded on waivers to the Baltimore Colts on 8/25/82, he was released on 9/6/82. After three seasons in the USFL, Taylor signed as a free agent with the Buccaneers on 3/26/86. NFL GAMES (STARTS): 94 (84); 1986: 16 (13); 1987: 5 (5); 1988: 16 (16); 1989: 16 (16); 1990: 16 (16); 1991: 16 (12); 1992: 9 (6).

VINCE WORKMAN

Running Back 46

Ht: 5-10 Wt: 205 Born: 5/9/68

College: Ohio State NFL Year: 5
Bucs Acq: Signed as a restricted free agent, 1993

PRO A talented swingman out of the backfield, Workman has increased his rushing and receiving totals in each of his four years in the NFL...Emerged as one of the league's most productive backs last year before shoulder injury in the Packers' 10th game cut his season short...Has rushed for 927 yards on 242 career carries and added 691 yards on 97 receptions...Totals include six games with at least 100 total yards from scrimmage...Has 15 career touchdowns to his credit, including 11 in 1991...Also served as Packers' primary kickoff returner as a rookie in 1989...Has only fumbled seven times in four-year career...Played primarily as a return man and on kick coverages in first two seasons, then narrowly missed out on starting tailback role in 1991 training camp...Emerged as one of Packers' primary weapons in 1991, and began 1992 as the starting tailback.

1992: Ranked fourth in the NFC in receptions and 10th in rushing yards through nine games of 1992 before injuring shoulder in 10th contest...Still tallied 63 rushing yards in his final game to finish with a career- and team-high 631 on 159 carries (4.0 avg.)...Also set a career high with 47 receptions, just passing his 1991 mark of 46...Exploded for 139 total yards in first NFL start, vs. Minnesota (9/6), rushing 25 times for 89 yards and adding a career-high 12 receptions for 50 yards...Turned in over 100 total yards in six of the Packers' first eight games...Recorded first career 100-yard rushing game with 101 yards on 23 carries at Detroit (11/1)...100-yard effort was first by a Packer in 42 games...Notched a career-high 84 receiving yards on eight catches at Cleveland (10/18)...Before injuring shoulder vs. Philadelphia (11/15), broke off a career-long 44-yard run...Rushed for 85 yards on a career-high 26 carries vs. Pittsburgh (12/27) and also pitched in with 20 yards on four catches.

1991: Intense training camp battle for starting tailback spot left incumbent Keith Woodside in the position, but Workman led squad in scoring with 11 touchdowns, seven on the ground and four through the air. Tied for fifth in the NFC in scoring among non-kickers with 66 points. 11 TDs was most by a Packer running back since 1978. Also finished second on the squad and sixth among NFC running backs in receptions with 46, gaining 371 yards. Put up outstanding receiving totals after notching just four receptions in 1989-90. Added 237 yards on 71 carries. Primarily saw action in Green Bay's four-WR, one-back set. Also returned eight kickoffs for 139 yards (17.4 avg.). Finished year on a scoring binge, recording a rushing TD in six of last nine games. Capped season with both a rushing and receiving touchdown in each of the last two games. Staked Packers to a 20-0 lead in eventual 27-7 win over Minnesota (12/21) in season finale with a 12-yard TD reception and a one-yard scoring run. Scampered a season-long 30 yards for a TD against Detroit (12/15), the longest scoring run of his career. Played in all sixteen games after missing a single game in each of his first two seasons.

1990: Played in 15 games as a reserve running back. Given just eight carries, but parlayed them into 54 yards, averaging 6.4 yards per carry. Added four receptions for 30 yards and a touchdown. Racked up season-high 40 yards on five carries in season opener vs. L.A. Rams (9/9), including a 31-yard bolt that set up what proved to be the winning TD in a 36-24 victory. Came down with first NFL scoring reception at L.A. Raiders (11/11) in 29-16 win. Also returned 14 kickoffs for a 15.0-yard average.

1989: Played in 15 games, almost all of his action coming as the team's kickoff return man. Ran back 33 kickoffs for 547 yards, an average of 16.6, with a long of 46. Led the squad (among qualifiers) in kickoff return average and set a Packer rookie record for most returns. Career-long 46-yard return came against L.A. Rams (9/24). Also subbed at running back, running four times for eight yards. Scored first NFL touchdown on a one-yard dive at Detroit (11/12).

TIMELINE Workman entered the league as Green Bay's second fifth-round pick in the 1989 Draft, making him the 127th choice overall. He played four seasons with the Packers and was a restricted free agent after the 1992 season. The Packers did not match the Buccaneers' offer sheet for Workman and he thus joined Tampa Bay on April 24, 1993 in exchange for a fifth-round pick in the 1993 Draft.

COLLEGE & PERSONAL Two-year starter and three-year letterman at Ohio State. Played in first two games of 1988 senior season before being declared ineligible. Averaged 4.6 yards a carry and scored 13 touchdowns in collegiate career, gaining 1,882 yards on 412 carries. Added 54 career receptions for 584 yards and a pair of TDs. Arrived as Buckeye's starter as a sophomore in 1986, amassing 1,030 yards on 210 carries, averaging 4.9 yards per rush and scoring eight touchdowns. Also led the team in rushing in 1987 despite being switched to flanker for the final six games of the season. Notched 470 yards on 118 carries in that junior season and then emerged as Ohio State's number two receiver after switch to flanker, grabbing 26 passes for 354 yards and a touchdown. Turned in six 100-yard games as a collegian. Twice chosen as an all-state tailback at Dublin (OH) High School. Named to Parade All-America squad after a senior season that produced 1,793 yards and 31 touchdowns. In all, gained 4,070 yards and scored 68 TDs in three-year prep career as a runner. Added four letters in track to his four football letters. Hobbies include video games, basketball, dancing and singing. Has done work towards his degree at Ohio State during off-seasons. Has one son, Vincent Workman, III (3). Nicknamed "Pookie". Given name is Vincent Innocent Workman, Jr. Major at Ohio State: economics. Born May 9, 1968, in Buffalo, New York.

BUCS-VIKINGS NOTES

For the third straight week, Tampa Bay took a lead into halftime, but a third-quarter letdown proved too much to overcome as Minnesota rallied for the victory...Both starting quarterbacks were knocked out of the game early: the Vikings' Rich Gannon was hit by rookie DL Santana Dotson attempting a pass that was intercepted by CB Darryl Pollard, and the Bucs' Vinny Testaverde experienced numbness in his throwing hand after being sacked...Rookie WR Courtney Hawkins hauled in his first touchdown pass from back-up QB Steve DeBerg on a 28-yard catch-and-run that helped the Bucs to a 13-7 halftime lead...The Vikings stormed back in the third period with back-to-back TDs, including a 29-yard TD catch by WR Cris Carter, his second score of the game...A field goal and a safety in the fourth put the Vikings up by 13, but DeBerg directed an 80-yard TD drive in two minutes that pulled the Bucs to within 26-20...The Vikings were able to run the clock down to 18 seconds, however, before giving Tampa Bay their final shot at the win...Dotson tied the Buccaneer rookie sack record for a season with his fifth in just three games.

BUCS-LIONS

The Bucs snapped a 15-game road losing skid in a wild contest that featured three fourth-quarter lead changes...For the second straight week, Tampa Bay took a lead into halftime but suffered a third quarter letdown...RB Reggie Cobb, who burst for 107 yards on 26 carries, sparked an 80-yard TD drive in the second quarter with a season-long 25-yard dash, giving the Bucs a 10-3 lead...Detroit QB Rodney Peete connected with WR Jason Campbell for a 78-yard touchdown on the first play of the second half...Detroit added a pair of field goals for a 16-10 lead heading into the final period...Rookie DT Santana Dotson, who earlier notched his team rookie record sixth sack, gave Tampa Bay a 20-16 lead by rumbling 42 yards with a Barry Sanders fumble that landed in his arms...The lead was extremely shortlived, however, as Detroit return specialist Mel Gray took the ensuing kickoff 89 yards for an answering touchdown...QB Vinny Testaverde rallied the Bucs again, though, directing an 80-yard drive that culminated in a 14-yard TD pass to TE Ron Hall on a flawlessly-executed misdirection play...The victory was not sealed until the closing seconds, when CB Milton Mack was able to drag Lions WR Brett Perriman down at the Tampa Bay three-yard line as time expired.

BUCS-FALCONS NOTES

The Bucs trailed just 14-7 at halftime, but fill-in Falcon QB Wade Wilson threw three of his five touchdown passes in the second half as Atlanta ran away with the game...Three Buc QBs, Vinny Testaverde, Steve DeBerg and rookie Craig Erickson, combined to complete 20 of 30 passes for 177 yards...RB Reggie Cobb, who rushed for 54 yards, netted the Bucs' only touchdown, his eighth of the season, on a one-yard run that finished off an 80-yard drive...Rookie FB Anthony McDowell had another fine outing, rushing for 36 yards on just three carries, including a 23-yard scamper, and catching four passes for 30 yards; his combined total of 66 yards was a season high...The Bucs only turned the ball over once, but forced no turnovers by the Falcons.

BUCS-49ERS NOTES

The Bucs rebounded with one of their strongest efforts of the season and came within a few yards of the biggest upset of the season...The two teams played to a 7-7 halftime tie, with Tampa Bay striking first on a smoothly-executed gadget play: QB Vinny Testaverde found rookie FB Anthony McDowell on a 51-yard TD pass after RB Gary Anderson faked a sweep and pitched back to the QB...49er QB answered with a four-yard TD pass to WR John Taylor on the last play of the first quarter...A second scoring threat was removed by SS Marty Carter, who blitzed Young, sacked the mobile QB and forced him to fumble: DE Keith McCants recovered for the Bucs...San Francisco scored twice in the second half on TD passes to All-Pro WR Jerry Rice, sandwiched around a one-yard touchdown run by Buc RB Reggie Cobb after a gritty 15-play, 80-yard drive...After Rice's second score gave the 49ers a 21-14 lead, Testaverde and Cobb again moved the Bucs down the field to a first down at the San Francisco three-yard line, but Tampa Bay was unable to convert the TD...The game was not decided until the final seconds, when Testaverde's 35-yard Hail Mary pass was batted away...RB Reggie Cobb peppered the league's number one run defense for 90 yards, giving him at least 50 rushing yards for a team-record 12th straight game...Rookie DL Santana Dotson was given his first start at end after playing tackle in the first 14 games, and responded with his 10th sack of the season, doubling the previous team rookie record; Dotson joined Lee Roy Selmon and Broderick Thomas as the only players in Tampa Bay history to reach double digits in sacks in a season.

BUCS-CARDINALS NOTES

The Bucs ended the 1992 season the way they began it, by defeating Phoenix...This contest was played on Sun Devil Stadium's loose, gravelly field, leading to three missed field goals by each team's placekicker...The Bucs netted the game's only TD on a second-quarter 23-yard pass from QB Vinny Testaverde to WR Mark Carrier...The Buc defense allowed a 21-yard field goal by Phoenix in the first quarter but kept their opponents off the board for the rest of the game with a string of timely turnovers...FS Joe King, making only his second start, turned in a Player-of-the-Game performance with the first two interceptions of his career, including one on a pass after an end-around by WR Ricky Proehl...CB Milton Mack also picked off two passes, including a last second toss to the corner of the end zone by substitute QB Timm Rosenbach that sealed the victory...Former Buc QB Chris Chandler started the contest for Phoenix and completed 23 of 43 passes for 234 yards, but was picked off three times and forced to fumble for a fourth turnover...The Bucs' five interceptions and six turnovers were both season highs for the defense...The Bucs committed just a single interception to give them just two turnovers in the final three games.

BUCCANEER HISTORY

FOUNDATION

November 4,1967: Tampa Stadium is dedicated as Tennessee defeats the University of Tampa, 38-0. The dedication concludes planning begun in 1965 by the Tampa Sports Authority, an 11-member public agency formed by the Florida Legislature. The 46,700-seat stadium costs $4.1 million.

August 10,1968: The first NFL preseason game is played in Tampa Stadium as Washington defeats Atlanta before a crowd of 42,000.

November, 1968: The first group attempting to secure an NFL franchise for Tampa Bay is formed. This group, known as the Suncoast Pro Football Committee, functions until 1972 when the Tampa Chamber of Commerce appoints the formal West Coast NFL Task Force headed by J. Leonard Levy.

Summer, 1972: The Baltimore Colts train and play three preseason games in Tampa.

April 24,1974: Tampa Bay is awarded the NFL's 27th franchise. As part of the franchise award for the area, Tampa Stadium will be enlarged to 72,000 seats.

October 30,1974: Philadelphia construction man Tom McCloskey is awarded the new Tampa Bay franchise, but soon backs off accepting ownership.

December 5,1974: Hugh F. Culverhouse, attorney and real estate investor who had earlier declined ownership of the Seattle franchise for geographic reasons, is awarded ownership.

February 15,1975: It is announced that the club will be known as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, which was also the choice of a local contest to name the new team.

April 21,1975: Tampa Sports Authority unanimously approves a 30-year lease agreement with Buc officials for Tampa Stadium. Three days later the Tampa City Council votes 6-1 for approval of the stadium lease and expansion to 72,000 seats.

July 9,1975: Ground is broken for the Tampa Stadium expansion financed by the sale of $13 million in bonds by the Tampa Sports Authority.

October 31,1975: John McKay, four national championships behind him at the University of Southern California, is announced as the head coach of the Buccaneers.

1976 (0-14, 5th AFC Central)

March 30,1976: The Bucs choose 39 players from other NFL rosters in the veteran allocation draft.

April 8,1976: Lee Roy Selmon, defensive end from Oklahoma, is the first pick of the entire draft.

July 5,1976: The Bucs welcome the first rookies and free agents to training camp at their recently completed office complex known as One Buccaneer Place.

July 31,1976: Tampa Bay's first ever action is a preseason game at the Los Angeles Coliseum with the Rams. Los Angeles wins 26-3 (Pete Rajecki's 18-yard FG).

August 14,1976: The Buccaneers are winners for the first time, defeating Atlanta 17-3 in a preseason game at Jacksonville's Gator Bowl.

August 21,1976: After three road preseason games, the Buccaneers open at home against the Miami Dolphins. As 67,466 fans watch, the Bucs drop a close one, 28-21.

September 12,1976: Tampa Bay's first regular season game is a 20-0 defeat at Houston. One week later, San Diego spoils the home opener, 23-0.

1977 (2-12, 5th NFL Central)

December 11,1977: The Bucs tie an NFL record with three interceptions returned for touchdowns and end 26 games of frustration with a 33-14 win at New Orleans. Over 8,000 fans greet the team when it returns to One Buccaneer Place.

December 18,1977: Tampa Bay makes it two in a row with its first home win ever, a 17-7 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Individuals in orange are Krewe of Honor members.

1978 (5-11, 5th NFC Central)

October 22,1978: Rookie quarterback Doug Williams leads the way as Tampa Bay defeats Chicago, 33-19, to up its record to 4-4, but injuries cripple the team during the second half of the season.

1979 (10-6,1st NFC Central)

September 30,1979: The Bucs become the only undefeated team in the NFL (5-0) with a 17-13 win at Chicago. The game proves decisive in the NFL Central race when Tampa Bay and Chicago end the season tied at 10-6.

December 16,1979: The Bucs clinch their first NFC Central crown. Tampa Bay edges Kansas City 3-0 in pouring rain at Tampa Stadium with Neil O'Donoghue's decisive 19-yard fourth quarter field goal. Ricky Bell finishes his 1,263-yard season with a 137-yard game.

December 29,1979: Tampa Bay is successful in its first-ever NFL playoff appearance, defeating Philadelphia, 24-17, as Bell rushes for 142 yards and two TDs.

January, 6,1980: The Bucs finish just one game short of the Super Bowl as Los Angeles wins the NFC Championship Game at Tampa Stadium, 9-0.

1980 (5-10-1, 4th NFC Central)

September 11,1980: Tampa Bay avenges January's NFC Championship Game defeat with a 10-9 victory over Los Angeles in the Buccaneers' first appearance on ABC's national television series. The game is played on a Thursday night.

1981 (9-7,1st NFC Central)

June 3,1981: A Tampa Bay Super Bowl Task Force, assisted by Hugh Culverhouse, makes a successful presentation at the NFL Owners' Meeting in Detroit and by a vote of 24-2 Tampa Stadium is selected as the site for Super Bowl XVIII on January 22,1984.

December 20,1981: Tampa Bay wins an exciting winner-take-all showdown with the Detroit Lions (20-17) for the NFC Central Division title. Two weeks later (January 2,1982), Dallas eliminates Tampa Bay from the playoffs.

1982 (5-4, 7th in NFC, Super Bowl Tournament Qualifier)

November 29,1982: After an 0-3 start and a 57-day interruption due to the NFL players' strike (9/21 to 11/15) Tampa Bay posts its first win of the season defeating cross-state rival Miami, 23-17, in the first nationally-televised Monday night game at Tampa Stadium.

January 2,1983: QB Doug Williams leads a rally from a 17-point halftime deficit as the Bucs qualify for postseason play for the third time in four years when Bill Capece's 33-yard field goal 3:14 into overtime provides a 26-23 win over the Chicago Bears. The Buccaneers win five of their final six games in their late-season drive, securing each triumph in the final minute. The next Sunday (January 9,1983), Dallas defeats Tampa Bay in playoff action (30-17).

1983 (2-14, 5th NFC Central)

November 6,1983: James Wilder gains 219 yards rushing as the injury-riddled Buccaneers break into the win column with a 17-12 victory at Minnesota.

January 22,1984: Tampa Stadium hosts Super Bowl XVIII. The Los Angeles Raiders defeat the Washington Redskins, 38-9, before a crowd of 72,920.

1984 (6-10, 3rd NFC Central)

November 5,1984: John McKay announces his resignation as head coach, effective at the end of the season. It comes one day after a 27-24 loss at Minnesota. The Bucs are 4-6 at the time.

December 16,1984: Tampa Bay defeats the Jets, 41-21, in McKay's last game after 25 years as a head coach. He finishes 44-88-1 in nine regular seasons (plus 1-3 in playoffs) with the Bucs. His overall 25-year coaching record is 171-128-9.

1985 (2-14, 5th NFC Central)

January 23,1985: Leeman Bennett, former head coach of Atlanta, is named head coach.

November 10,1985: The Bucs post their only shutout since 1979, defeating St. Louis, 16-0, to snap a nine-game losing streak.

1986 (2-14, 5th NFC Central)

September 7,1986: In halftime ceremonies at the season opener with San Francisco, six-time Pro Bowler Lee Roy Selmon's jersey #63 becomes the first to be retired by the Bucs.
December 21,1986: The Bucs fall at St. Louis, 21-17, in Leeman Bennett's final game as Buccaneer head coach (4-28). He is relieved of his position on December 29th.

1987 (4-11, 4th NFC Central)

December 31,1986: Ray Perkins is hired as Head Coach/VP-Football Operations.
May 20,1987: Tampa Bay is awarded its second Super Bowl with the selection of Tampa Stadium to host Super Bowl XXV, the Silver Super Bowl, on January 27,1991. The selection comes on the sixth ballot at a meeting of NFL owners in San Diego.
September 13,1987: Tampa Bay routs Atlanta, 48-10, as quarterback Steve DeBerg throws five touchdown passes.
October 25,1987: Following the 24-day NFLPA strike, during which the Bucs' replacement team won two of three games, Tampa Bay loses to Chicago 27-26.
December 6,1987: Vinny Testaverde makes his debut as Tampa Bay's starting quarterback in New Orleans. He passes for 369 yards (22-47-2) and two touchdowns. Mark Carrier sets a Buc record with 212 receiving yards.

1988 (5-11, 3rd NFC Central)

October 16,1988: Vinny Testaverde passes for 469 yards at Indianapolis.
December 4,1988: Tampa Bay's win over eventual AFC East Champion Buffalo is the first 10-5 score in NFL history.

1989 (5-11, 5th NFC Central)

October 8,1989: As the largest crowd in Tampa Stadium history watches (72,077), the Bucs end 12 games of frustration against the Bears with a 42-35 win (first Tampa Bay win over Chicago since 1/2/83).
December 24,1989: Mark Carrier completes a great season with six catches for 101 yards vs. Pittsburgh. He earns a Pro Bowl berth with club records of 86 receptions and 1,422 receiving yards.

1990 (6-10, 2nd NFC Central)

October 14,1990: The Buccaneers advance to 4-2 with a 26-14 win over the Packers. But starting with a last-minute loss to Dallas the next week, the Bucs lose six straight.
December 16,1990: The Bucs defeat Minnesota, 26-13, in Richard Williamson's first game as head coach. Williamson, until then the team's assistant head coach and receivers coach, was named interim coach on December 3rd after Ray Perkins was relieved of his duties. Tampa Bay was 19-41 under Perkins. The Bucs go 1-2 under Williamson's direction in 1990.
January 27,1991: The New York Giants edge the Buffalo Bills, 20-19, in Super Bowl XXV played at Tampa Stadium.

1991 (3-13, 5th NFC Central)

February 4,1991: Gay Culverhouse is announced as the team's new president, Phil Krueger is named general manager and Richard Williamson is named head coach.
November 10,1991: Reggie Cobb scores three touchdowns as the Bucs defeat Detroit, 30-21. Coupled with an October 6th win over Philadelphia, the Bucs beat two teams which will win 10 or more games for the first time in team history.
December 8,1991: John McKay, Ricky Bell and Lee Roy Selmon are inducted as the initial members of the team's Krewe of Honor.
December 27,1991: Richard Williamson (4-15) is relieved as head coach.

1992 (5-11, 3rd NFC Central)

January 10, 1992: Sam Wyche is named as the Buccaneers' fifth head coach with a five-year contract.

September 6, 1992: As Doug Williams is inducted into the Bucs' Krewe of Honor, Sam Wyche's tenure as head coach gets off to a winning start with a 23-7 win over Phoenix. Santana Dotson records two sacks in his first game, starting a rookie campaign in which he will be named NFC Defensive Rookie of the Year.

November 15, 1992: Reggie Cobb, en route to gaining 1,171 yards on the year, gains a season-high 114 yards as the Bucs' edge Chicago, 20-17, before a sellout crowd at Tampa Stadium.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYERS

Two separate awards are presented each year to the team member chosen as the Bucs' Most Valuable Player. The St. Petersburg Times' award is determined by a vote of writers who regularly cover the team and the Tampa Sports Club, a cross section of the Tampa sports community, votes for its award. The Newspaper Enterprise Association no longer conducts a poll which was won in 1977 and 1979 by Lee Roy Selmon, in 1976 by Dave Pear and in 1978 by David Lewis.

ONCE BENGALS, NOW BUCS

The Bucs go to training camp with six players on their roster who played for Sam Wyche while he was head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals.

PLAYER		YEARS WITH BENGALS
CB	Chris Barber	2 (1988-1989)
LB	Ed Brady	6 (1986-1991)
CB	Barney Bussey	7 (1986-1992)
S	Joe King	1 (1991)
T	Anthony Muñoz	13 (1980-1992)
G	Bruce Reimers	8 (1984-1991)

PLAYOFF SCHEDULE

January 8-9 — Wild Card Playoff Games
January 15-16 — Divisional Playoff Games
January 23 — Conference Championship Games
January 30 — Super Bowl XXVIII at Georgia Dome, Atlanta, GA
February 6 — Pro Bowl in Honolulu

PLAYOFF SITE PRIORITIES

Wild Card Games — The division champion with the third-best record will host the Wild Card team with the third-best record. The Wild Card team with the best record will host the Wild Card team with the second-best record. There are no restrictions on intra-division games.
Divisional Playoff Games — In each conference the two division champions with the best record will host the Wild Card winners. The division champion with the best record in each conference is assured of playing the Wild Card survivor with the poorest record. There are no restrictions on intra-division games.
Championship Games — The home teams will be the surviving playoff winners with the best record during the regular season. A Wild Card team can only play host to the game if two Wild Card teams are in the game.

NFL PERSONNEL/CALENDAR

August 24 – Roster cutdown to maximum of 60 players (by 4 p.m.)
August 30 – Roster cutdown to maximum of 47 players (by 4 p.m.)
August 31 – Beginning at noon, clubs may establish an inactive list of six additional players either by procedural recall or by signing free agents. Clubs may dress 45 players and a Third Quarterback for each regular season and postseason game. After 4 p.m. clubs may establish a practice squad of five players by signing free agents who do not have a season of free agency credit.
September 21 – Priority on multiple waiver claims is now based on 1993 standings.
October 19 – All trading ends at 4 p.m.
October 20 – Players with at least four previous pension credited seasons are subject to the waiver system for the remainder of the regular season and postseason.
November 9 – Deadline for clubs to sign their Unrestricted Free Agents and their Restricted Free Agents to whom a June 1 tender was made, as well as all drafted players. If such players remain unsigned after this date, they are prohibited from playing in the NFL in 1993.

January 31 – Clubs may begin signing free agent players for the 1994 season.
February 16 – Deadline for exercising options for 1994 on all players who have option clauses in their 1993 contracts. Deadline for submission of qualifying offers by clubs to their Restricted Free Agents whose contracts have expired and to whom they desire to retain a Right of First Refusal/Compensation. Deadline for clubs to submit offer of minimum salary to retain exclusive negotiating rights to their players with fewer than three seasons of free agency credit whose contracts have expired.
February 17 – Expiration date of all player contracts due to expire in 1994. Trading period and free agency signing period begin.
April 18 – Deadline for signing of Offer Sheets by Restricted Free Agents.
April 24-25 – Annual Player Selection Meeting (The Draft)

PLAYOFF INFORMATION

Division Ties

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with the best won-lost-tied percentage, the following steps will be taken until a CHAMPION is determined:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-Head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played with the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, if applicable.
5 Best net points in division games
6. Best net points In all games
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

THREE-OR-MORE CLUBS

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after a third club is eliminated, tie-breaker reverts to Step One of two-club format.

1. Head-to-Head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-led percentage in games within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games within the conference
4. Best won-lost tied percentage in common games.
5. Best net points in division games.
6. Best net touchdowns in all games.
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

Wild Card Ties

If necessary to break ties to determine the three Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken:

1. If all the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tie-breaker.
2. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps:

When the first Wild Card team has been identified, the procedure is repeated to name the second Wild Card (i.e. eliminate all but the highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to step two), and repeated a third time if necessary, to identify the third Wild Card. In situations where three or more teams from the same division are involved in the procedure, the original seeding of the teams remains the same for subsequent applications of the tiebreaker if the top-ranked team in that division qualifies for a Wild Card berth.

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-Head, if applicable.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Best average net points in conference games.
5. Best net points in all games.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best net touchdowns in all games.
8. Coin toss.

THREE-OR-MORE CLUBS

1. Head-to-Head sweep (applicable only if one club has defeated each of the others or one club has lost to each of the others
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Best average net points in conference games.
5. Best net points in all games.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best net touchdowns in all games.
8. Coin toss.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Please direct requests for information, photos and interviews to the Buccaneer Public Relations Department, One Buccaneer Place, Tampa, FL 33607, (813) 870-2700. After 5 p.m. and on weekends call (813) 879-5592. Rick Odioso, Director—Home (813) 962-1559; Cheryl Harden, Asst. Director—Home (813) 969-3804, Scott Smith—Home (813) 870-2860. The Buccaneers' PR Fax number is (813) 878-0813. The phone number for the media trailer is (813) 871-2179.

PRESS BOX: The Bucs maintain two press boxes, on the first and third levels of Tampa Stadium. All working news media with the proper credentials should enter the press gate (west side of stadium). The main press box number is (813) 875-2827. Please keep this number confidential.

CREDENTIALS: News media representatives on assignment who do not hold press box credentials for the season should request single-game reservations one week in advance by writing or calling Rick Odioso or Cheryl Harden. Reserved credentials may be picked up at the press gate on game day. The press gate is located on the Dale Mabry Highway side (west) of Tampa Stadium and is open four hours before kickoff.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Field photographers should enter the press gate and proceed to the media room to obtain an armband for field admission. No one except network television and game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. There is also a photo deck located on the fourth level. Space is available on a first-come, first-served basis. Field photographers are cautioned that the bench area inside the 35-yard line is off-limits to all non-playing personnel. Field photographers must also remain at least 12 feet outside of the sideline boundary.

Photographers are asked to take special note of the following conditions for use of press credentials:

"Any secondary non-editorial use of any picture, film/tape or drawing of the game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom this credential has been issued (including but not limited to use in advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) is prohibited without prior specific written approval of the National Football League. Additionally, television stations are prohibited from making available game film or tape to any other organization even though the planned use may be editorial in nature without advance written permission from the NFL or one of its member clubs. Such film or tape may be aired only by the specific station or entity to whom this credential is issued.

Television stations filming or taping NFL games recognize that any film or tapes may only be used in connection with a regularly scheduled television newscast within a seven-day period following the game and the film clip or taped portion of each such showing will not exceed two (2) minutes in length.

Additionally, television stations agree not to use more than six (6) minutes of filmed or taped "same-day" highlights from NFL games on any regularly scheduled news programs (i.e. no more than six minutes of highlights on Sunday night). This is the only exception to the two-minute limitation."

TELEPHONE: There are three outside lines and four pay telephones located in the main press box, and two additional outside lines in the auxiliary box. Requests for individual telephone circuits should be directed to Debbie Marchitto, Service Representative, Tampa Stadium, General Telephone Company, (813) 664-2475 or 1-800-782-4801.

TAMPA STADIUM

Tampa Stadium, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' home for the past 17 seasons, will be the address for exciting football this fall.

With Buccaneer Head Coach Sam Wyche directing the show, the Tampa Bay offense will light up the Tampa skyline with points while the defense continues to frustrate the opposition.

Tampa Stadium is no stranger to exciting football, however. Tampa Stadium has hosted two Super Bowls: XVIII won by the Los Angeles Raiders over the Washington Redskins, 38-9 on January 22,1984 and XXV, won by the New York Giants over the Buffalo Bills, 20-19, on January 27,1991.

Tampa Stadium is also the home of the Hall of Fame Bowl, inaugurated in December, 1986, which showcases some of college football's brightest talent on New Year's Day.

Known for the outstanding field and layout, other improvements were made before the 1990 season to update Tampa Stadium. The Buccaneers installed a 24-foot by 32-foot Sony Jumbotron above the south end zone to offer playbacks and features for the fans. The installation of seatbacks throughout the stadium also added to the comfort of Buccaneer fans in the stadium.

Tampa Stadium now seats 74,301 for Buccaneer games (including 61 Sky Suites over the east stands with seating capacity varying between 12 and 40 seats). Tampa Stadium is the third largest stadium in the NFC with only the Pontiac Silverdome and Giants Stadium boasting greater capacity.

Construction on Tampa Stadium began in October, 1966, and it was dedicated on November 7,1967. The stadium originally seated 46,500 fans and cost only $4.6 million. In this configuration, it served as home to the University of Tampa as well as other college football games and professional preseason contests.

The end zones were enclosed to raise seating capacity to over 72,000 after the NFL franchise was awarded to Tampa Bay in 1975. Other additions in 1975 were new computerized scoreboards at either end and an additional level on the press box above the west stands.

The complex is administered by the Tampa Sports Authority, a public board composed of 11 members from both the city of Tampa and Hillsborough County, which was established by the State of Florida in 1965.

WTOG-TV

KELLY

COLLINSWORTH

Now in its fourth consecutive year as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' official television station, WTOG-TV, Channel 44, will continue to bring the most up-to-date information to Buc fans in the Tampa Bay area.

WTOG kicks off the season with an hour-long special, Countdown to NFL '93 on Friday, August 6th at 8:00 p.m. Before the last three Buccaneer preseason games, Countdown to Kickoff will take viewers behind the scenes at a Buccaneer game. Each 30-minute special airs 30 minutes before the televised game.

In addition to these programs, WTOG will air weekly Wyche Report show every Friday night at 10:30 throughout the season. Channel 44 will also introduce the Buc players and coaches to the Tampa Bay area through a season-long series of Buc Bios, short informative vigniettes which will share little known facts about the individuals. Buc fans will also be treated to the Buc Report during the sports portion of the nightly 10 p.m. news as well.

ESPN announcer Jim Kelly and WTOG sports director Bob Alvarez return to the WTOG team as well as last year's rookie of the year, Cris Collinsworth. Collinsworth, a former standout wide receiver with the Cincinnati Bengals, joined the WTOG team last season and proved to be one of the finest new talents in sports announcing. Earlier in the year, he covered Wimbledon for HBO Sports. Collinsworth will provide color for all four games and Kelly will once again provide play-by-play for the final three games, with the Orlando's Magic's David Steele substituting during the first game on August 7th. This will be the seventh season behind the Buc microphone for Kelly, also known for his work on ESPN reporting golf and America's Cup ocean racing.

The preseason home games will be shown on a tape-delayed basis opener, with the August 7th game against Denver shown on August 8th at 4:00 p.m. and the August 27th game against the Browns broadcast on August 28th at 4:00 p.m. Tampa Bay's two away preseason games, August 14 at Atlanta and August 21st against the Buffalo Bills in Orlando, will be shown live.

SWASH-BUC-LERS

Sandy Karl

Leading the cheers and performing various dance routines are the Swash-buc-lers. The group was founded with the team in 1976 and has 36 members. The squad performs many complicated dance routines during breaks in the game action, in addition to leading the crowd in cheers. In 1992, Tampa Stadium was invaded by a band of four pirates who roam the stands and field on Sundays looking for adventure. The Swash-buc-lers and Band of Pirates return this season eager for more excitement.

Once again, the groups are directed by Sandy Karl, who is entering her fifth year as the director and choreographer. Karl, along with husband, Bob, has operated the Karl and DiMarco School of Theatre in Tampa for the past 21 years. The group is sponsored by Paul Mitchell Hair Products and Sacino's Formal Wear.

WQYK BUCCANEER RADIO NETWORK

DECKERHOFF

LOGAN

BRANTLEY

Once again, Buc fans won't miss a touchdown, tackle or time-out when they follow the team through all-pro Tampa Bay flagship station, WQYK Radio. The network will again broadcast in stereo in AM and FM and on affiliate radio stations in more than 25 Florida cities.

The WQYK Buccaneer Radio Network returns for its third year with Gene Deckerhoff and David Logan again providing the play-by-play and color. Former Buccaneer linebacker Scot Brantley joins the WQYK team this year and will handle interviews and updates.

Gene Deckerhoff is back for his fourth season as the play-by-play voice of the Buccaneers. One of the nation's premier play-by-play announcers, Deckerhoff has been the popular voice for Florida State football and basketball broadcasts for the past 15 years. He is the former voice of the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits and former sports director of WCTV-TV in Tallahassee and has received the Florida Sportscaster of the Year Award five times.

Joining him in the broadcast booth will be former Buccaneer David Logan who continues in his third year with WQYK as analyst after a successful playing career with the Buccaneers (1979-86). Recognized as one of the top nose tackles in the NFC during his playing days, he finished his career in 1986 with a string of 103 consecutive starts and was chosen All-Pro by The Sporting News and All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly in 1984.

Brantley enjoyed an eight-year career with the Bucs and still ranks among the team's career leaders in games played and tackles. A native of Ocala, Brantley attended the University of Florida.
